JAKE ABBOTT

2019 TOMMY NICKOLICH MEMORIAL AWARD WINNER AS THE PROGRAM'S TOP WALK-ON

"I know every little boy, in West Virginia, has the same dream, to put on the Old Gold and Blue and have a Flying WV on your chest. It means something different than just that you can play football. I love the game, but I definitely love this state more than I love the game of football. That is what pushes me."

NICK MEADOWS

2016-17 LONG SNAPPER

"Being a walk-on is a tremendous opportunity. You have to stick to the process and have that belief, that hope that you can do it. Keep working every day, regardless of whether you have a scholarship or not."

OSMAN KAMARA

2020 TOMMY NICKOLICH MEMORIAL AWARD WINNER AS THE PROGRAM'S TOP WALK-ON

"Playing Power 5 football always has been a dream of mine. I am so thankful to have the opportunity to be a WVU Mountaineer, first as a walk-on and now on scholarship. I attacked every day with the goal in mind of one day earning a scholarship – continuing to work hard, keep improving and have the mentality that no one can tell the difference between me and a scholarship player on or off the field."

NAJEE GOODE

MEMBER OF 2018 SUPER BOWL CHAMPION PHILADELPHIA EAGLES

"When I first walked on, I was just trying to get to the next level. For me, that next level was getting a scholarship and playing hard. After I got there, the next level was to become a consistent starter and a good leader. Once I did that, it was keep improving and maybe have the possibility of playing in the NFL. It was a long shot. I was hoping and praying for it, and I just kept working hard. Now that it's here, I still can't believe it."

CHARACTER
Public, land-grant institution, founded in 1867.

RESEARCH CLASSIFICATION
R1: Doctoral Universities – Highest Research Activity, as described by the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education. One of only 130 schools to hold this designation.

ACCREDITATION
WVU is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission. Many programs hold specialized accreditation.

GOVERNANCE
The WVU Board of Governors is the University's governing body. The Higher Education Policy Commission in West Virginia is responsible for developing, establishing and overseeing the implementation of a public policy agenda for the state's four-year colleges and universities. E. Gordon Gee is WVU's 24th president.

CAMPUS LOCATIONS AND FACILITIES
The WVU System is a family of distinctive campuses united by a single mission. From the groundbreaking research of our flagship in Morgantown (ranked R1, the highest research category institution) to the student-centered focus of WVU Potomac State College in Keyser to the technology-intensive programs at WVU Institute of Technology in Beckley, we are united by a single mission — providing a quality education.

The WVU Institute of Technology in Beckley offers more than 35 majors, including one of the top 100 undergraduate engineering programs in the country, as ranked by U.S. News & World Report.

WVU Potomac State College in Keyser has one of the lowest tuition rates of all the nation's four-year institutions. Offering more than 60 majors, this campus combines the personal attention of a small college with the benefits of a major university.

The WVU System also includes WVU Health Sciences locations in Charleston and Martinsburg, as well as 13 farms and forests throughout the state and WVU Jackson's Mill State 4-H Camp.

The WVU Morgantown campus is located in a town named the "#1 Place to Live in West Virginia," by Money magazine. Morgantown, population 30,000, has also been rated as the ninth-best college town in America by Business Insider and is within easy traveling distance of Washington, D.C., to the east, Pittsburgh, Pa., to the north, and Cleveland and Columbus, Ohio, to the northwest. Other rankings: Kiplinger.com included Morgantown in their 10 great places to live list; ranked as the top STEM city in West Virginia by Insurify and the #15 "Top College Football Towns in the Country," by Bleacher Report.

STUDENT PROFILE
Fall 2019 WVU System enrollment was 29,933

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE
WVU ranks nationally for prestigious scholarships: 25 Rhodes Scholars, 24 Truman Scholars, 45 Goldwater Scholars, three George C. Marshall (British) Scholars, five Morris K. Udall Scholars, five USA Today All-USA College Academic First Team Members (and 11 academic team honorees), 26 Boren Scholars, 72 Gilman Scholars, 65 Fulbright Scholars, three Department of Homeland Security Scholars, 33 Critical Language Scholars, one Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Graduate Scholar, five National Institute of Standards and Technology Fellowships and 25+ National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowships.

FACULTY AND STAFF PROFILE
The student-to-faculty ratio at WVU Morgantown is 18:1. Seventy-six percent of full-time instructional faculty hold the highest academic degree in their field, and 64 percent of all WVU classes and 67 percent of all WVU non-laboratory classes are taught by full-time instructional faculty.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS
Fourteen Morgantown colleges and schools offer 360 majors in agriculture, natural resources and design; arts and sciences; business and economics; creative arts; dentistry; education and human services; engineering and mineral resources; journalism; law; medicine; nursing; pharmacy; physical activity and sport sciences; public health. Hundreds of distance-education and online classes are available.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS
Students can choose from among 500+ student organizations or participate in an active intramural program or a variety of club sports.

SERVICE AND LEARNING
The Center for Service and Learning develops and organizes service learning and volunteer opportunities for students and faculty. WVU is one of only 75 schools recognized by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching for community engagement.

PARENTS CLUB
The Mountaineer Parents Club, with 20,000-plus members, connects parents and families with the student experience.

ALUMNI
Chartered in 1873, the WVU Alumni Association is made up of more than 200,000+ graduates worldwide in some 135 nations.

PRIVATE SUPPORT
The WVU Foundation recently completed the second-largest year in private fundraising since its founding in 1954. A total of 20,857 donors contributed $177.4 million to West Virginia University during the 2018-2019 fiscal year. The Foundation has raised almost $600 million ($596.3 million) for WVU in the last five fiscal years.

ADMISSION AND APPLICATION TIMELINE
Admission is based on a combination of high school GPA and ACT or SAT scores. Applications are processed beginning August 1 for admission the following fall. March 1 is the deadline for West Virginia residents to submit PROMISE Scholarship applications. WVU has a rolling admissions policy, and there is no official application deadline.

HEAD COACH

NEAL BROWN

Neal Brown is in his second year as the head coach at West Virginia.

Since arriving in Morgantown in January 2019, Brown has covered much territory representing Mountaineer Football as its chief ambassador, ensuring the great story about his program is told to everyone.

Brown did not leave a stone unturned, preaching his "All-In" Football, Family, Fun philosophy and encouraged every group, whether players, recruits, coaches, staff, alumni, boosters and Mountaineer Nation, to get on board.

The culture of the football program has changed, the leadership is dynamic and the player development and buy-in rate is at a high level.

Brown has implemented a "5th-Quarter Program" for the team to assist in the development of the total player. The pillars of the program are character development, leadership development, real life, social responsibility and career development.

Another component of the 5th Quarter program is the Bridge Program. Its goal is to introduce the student-athletes to the college experience when they first enter WVU and then give them their final training and prepare them before they embark into life after graduation.

Brown has supported and championed program leadership by the players and above all a dedication to the individual student-athlete. His mission has been to develop each player as a complete person, not only on the field, but off, and for each to continuously build themselves and their brand to make a difference in the world after their football career is finished.

> "WE WANT TO POSITION OUR PLAYERS FOR SUCCESS ON THE PLAYING FIELD AND FOR LIFE BEYOND GRADUATION."
>
> - NEAL BROWN

Even though the Mountaineers finished 5-7 in what was called a transitional year, Brown has laid a solid foundation, as WVU showed improvement throughout the season and proved it's ready to continue its upward climb in 2020.

Now during the 2020 offseason, his message to the team has been to continue to "Trust the Climb" by coming to work ready to compete every day; continue to get better and together the program will be the most improved team in the country this year.

In 2019, the Mountaineers finished the regular season winning two of the final three games, at Kansas State and at TCU, and had a 3-3 mark on the road, including 3-2 road record in the Big 12 Conference.

Brown's Record at West Virginia: 5-7 (1 year)
Overall Record: 40-23 (5 Years)

Five of Brown's players were named to All-Big 12 postseason teams, and Colton McKivitz was named the Big 12's Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year. McKivitz earned spots on two All-American teams - Walter Camp Football Foundation's Second Team and the Associated Press' Third Team, and Tykee Smith was named a freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America. McKivitz played in the Reese's Senior Bowl, participated in the NFL Player Combine and was selected in the fifth-round of the NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Keith Washington II played in the East-West Shrine Game, and Rex Sunhara participated in the NFLPA Collegiate All-Star Game.

Twenty-two players were named to the Academic All-Big 12 teams and all but one of the 2019 senior class have earned their degrees. He will be finished by the end of the fall semester.

Brown, one of six FBS coaches to win 10 or more games in 2016, 2017 and 2018, was named WVU's 35th head football coach on Jan. 5, 2019.

He spent the previous four years as the head coach at Troy University (2015-18), compiling a 35-16 record, including 3-0 in bowl games. In his final three seasons, the Trojans posted a 31-8 record (.795), tying for the highest winning percentage nationally among non-Power 5 schools.

Before Brown left after the 2018 season, Troy had won 17 of its last 20 games and 22 of its last 26 games. After directing the Trojans to the 2017 Sun Belt Conference Championship, Brown was honored as the league's coach of the year.

During his highly successful tenure at Troy, Brown's signature wins included a 24-21 victory in 2017 at then-No. 22 ranked LSU in Baton Rouge, which snapped the Tigers' 49-game non-conference home winning streak and a 24-19 win at Nebraska on Sept. 15, 2018. Also impressive was his team's narrow 30-24 loss at eventual 2016 national champion Clemson.

In 2018, Troy finished 10-3, including a victory over Buffalo in the Dollar General Bowl in Mobile, Alabama. The Trojans finished 7-1 in conference play and won five of their last six games.

The 2017 campaign featured an 11-win season for Troy, including a win over North Texas in the New Orleans Bowl. The Trojans once again finished with a 7-1 conference mark, earning Brown his first conference championship. Troy finished the season with the 27th most votes in the final Amway Coaches Poll, marking the highest final ranking by a Sun Belt Conference squad in league history.

Troy faced seven bowl teams and posted a 6-1 mark in those games. Additionally, the Trojans played three conference or conference division champions – Boise State (Mountain West), Akron (MAC/East) and North Texas (C-USA West).

Troy finished 10-3 in 2016, including a 6-2 mark in the Sun Belt and a victory over Ohio University in the Dollar General Bowl. The Trojans became the first Sun Belt Conference school to ever open a season with eight wins in its first nine games, and they became the first league school to appear in a major top 25 poll, checking in at No. 25 in the Associated Press' Nov. 13 poll. Additionally, Brown's 2016 squad tied for the best turnaround in the country (6 wins).

Prior to Brown's first season at Troy in 2015, he spent two years (2013-14) as the offensive coordinator under Mark Stoops at Kentucky. Under his direction, he led the Wildcats to some new heights on the offensive side of the football. The Wildcats posted more than 440 yards of total offense in three Southeastern Conference games in 2014, its highest total since 2001.

The Wildcats totaled 380 yards or more of total offense in their first three SEC games in 2014 – Florida, Arkansas and South Carolina – marking the first time a UK team had done so since 1998. Kentucky scored 21 offensive touchdowns in SEC play in 2014. The two years prior to Brown being named offensive coordinator, Kentucky had a combined 21 offensive touchdowns in SEC play.

He also spent three years at Texas Tech (2010-12) as the offensive coordinator after his first stint at Troy as an assistant coach from 2006-09.

As Texas Tech's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, the Red Raiders ranked in the nation's top-seven teams in passing offense, top 15 in total offense and top 25 in scoring offense, having increased production in all three categories each year since 2010. TTU finished the 2012 season second nationally in passing with 355.9 yards per game, 13th in total offense at 495.4 yards per game and 20th in scoring with 37.5 points per game.

The 2012 campaign was an expansion of the success from 2011, when Texas Tech ranked 13th nationally in total offense at 470.6 yards per game. The Red Raiders lit the scoreboard at a tune of 33.8 points per contest. In his first season in Lubbock, Brown's offense notched 460.2 yards of total offense per game, 318.9 passing, and scored at a 33.1-point clip as Tech went 8-5 and won the TicketCity Bowl.

At Troy, Brown was the inside receivers coach the first two years (2006-07) with the Trojans before transitioning to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2008-09. Troy won four Sun Belt Conference titles and appeared in three bowl games during Brown's initial tenure.

He began his coaching career with one-year stints at UMass (2003), Sacred Heart (2004) and Delaware (2005).

At Delaware, Brown served as wide receivers coach, starting three freshman wideouts as the Blue Hens went 6-5.

In 2004, Brown coached the quarterbacks and wide receivers at Sacred Heart, boasting the top-ranked scoring offense in the conference.

In 2003, he was the tight ends coach and offensive line assistant at Massachusetts, helping the Minutemen win a share of the Atlantic-10 championship and a berth in the FCS playoffs.

Brown was a wide receiver at Kentucky for three years (1998-2000) before finishing his career at UMass in 2001-02. He was a member of two bowl teams with the Wildcats and was named to the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll.

While at UMass, he was an Atlantic 10 All-Academic honoree and an NCAA Division I-AA Athletic Directors' Academic All-Star team selection.

Brown graduated from UMass with a bachelor's degree in business management in 2002 and earned his master's degree in business administration in 2005.

Born in Louisville, Kentucky, Brown grew up in Bardstown, Kentucky, before moving to Danville, Kentucky, where he was an all-state wide receiver at Boyle County High School, finishing his career as the No. 2 receiver in state history.

Brown, and his wife, Brooke, have two daughters, Adalyn and Anslee, and a son, Dax.

MATT MOORE

Assistant Head Coach/
Offensive Line
@CoachMooreWVU

Matt Moore was promoted to assistant head coach in January and is in his second year with the Mountaineers and continues to oversee the offensive line.

In his first year with the offensive line, left tackle Colton McKivitz earned Walter Camp and Associated Press All-American honors and was named the Big 12 Conference's Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year. The All-Big 12 First Team honoree played in the Reese's Senior Bowl in Mobile, Alabama, partipated in the NFL Player Combine in Indianapolis, Indiana, and was selected in the fifth round of the NFL Draft.

Moore joined the football coaching staff as the Mountaineers' co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach in January 2019. Moore came with WVU coach Neal Brown after serving as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for four years at Troy (2015-18). He spent two years on the offensive staff at Texas Tech in 2010-11 and was on the staff with Brown at Troy in 2006.

In 2018, the Trojans finished 10-3 and tied for first place in the Sun Belt Conference East Division. Seven players from the Trojan offense earned All-Sun Belt Conference recognition, including three first-team selections.

The 2017 squad finished 11-2, won the Sun Belt Conference Championship and had a signature win at No. 22 LSU, snapping the Tigers' 49-game non-conference home winning streak. Moore's offensive line finished No. 6 nationally in offensive line efficiency and No. 12 in fewest sacks allowed.

Four Trojan offensive linemen earned All-Sun Belt Conference honors, including left tackle Antonio Garcia, who was the highest selected offensive lineman in conference history, No. 85 overall in the NFL draft by the New England Patriots.

Moore's offense led the Sun Belt in scoring offense in 2016, and finished No. 2 in the league in passing offense and total offense. Troy finished 10-3 and earned its first top-25 national ranking in school and conference history.

The Trojans also tied for the nation's lead in best win improvement from the previous year. Troy placed six offensive players on All-Sun Belt teams, including four first-team selections.

Prior to Moore's first season at Troy, he spent the previous two years as the assistant head coach and offensive line coach at Louisiana Tech. In 2014, the Bulldogs won the Conference USA Western Division Championship and earned a trip to the Heart of Dallas Bowl.

Moore also spent time at Middle Tennessee (OL/2012), Texas Tech (OL/2007-11) and Troy (OL/2006). He began his coaching career at the high school level, producing successful runs in Georgia and Alabama.

While at Middle Tennessee, the Blue Raider offensive line ranked No. 2 nationally in fewest sacks allowed, and Moore was nominated for the Broyles Award, given to the top assistant coach in the nation.

His Texas Tech offensive line paved the way for the Red Raiders to score 28 rushing touchdowns in 2008, second most in school history. The Red Raiders led the country in passing offense, registering 5,371 yards and were No. 4 in total offense with 6,903 yards.

With Brown and Moore on the Texas Tech staff together in 2010, the Red Raiders finished No. 7 nationally in passing, No. 15 in total offense and No. 23 in scoring offense. The following year, the Red Raiders ranked No. 7 in passing, No. 13 in total offense and No. 22 in scoring offense.

Moore's career began as the head coach and running backs coach at Pickens High in Jasper, Georgia, from 1997-98, before spending the next six years as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at perennial powerhouse Hoover High School in Hoover, Alabama. Moore helped lead the Buccaneers to a 77-7 record and three consecutive Class 6A state titles.

Moore also served as head coach at North Gwinnett High School in Suwanee, Georgia, before beginning his collegiate coaching career at Troy.

A native of Canton, Georgia, Moore played at Valdosta State, starting 34 games at left guard from 1991-94. He earned All-Gulf South Conference First-Team honors as a senior.

Moore graduated from Valdosta State in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education.

He and his wife, Kelly, have three daughters, Tanner, Reece and Sutton.

GERAD PARKER

Offensive Coordinator/
Wide Receivers
@GeradParker1

Gerad Parker is in his first year as the offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at West Virginia. Parker is reunited with head coach Neal Brown and co-offensive coordinator Chad Scott, as they were all part of the Kentucky football program.

Parker comes to West Virginia after serving as the passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach at Penn State in 2019. The Nittany Lions offense averaged 35.8 points per game, ranking No. 15 nationally, was No. 21 in red zone offense (.904) and averaged 13.3 yards per completion, ranking No. 33 nationally. One of his receivers, KJ Hamler, led the team with 56 catches for 904 yards and eight touchdowns. He was a 2020 second round draft pick of the Denver Broncos and was All-Big Ten First Team as an all-purpose player by Sports Illustrated and a second-teamer on several lists.

Parker spent two years on the football staff at Duke (2017-18). During the 2018 season, he coached T.J. Rahming, who was named an All-ACC Second Team selection. His wide receivers accounted for 2,252 of the Blue Devils' 3,199 total offensive yards (70.4%). Both were school records.

He served his first year as the football operations assistant working with the offense in 2017. The Blue Devils offense had three All-ACC selections and for the first time in program history had three players with 500 or more rushing yards, while also having a quarterback throw for more than 2,500 yards. Parker spent the spring as the running backs coach at Cincinnati, before joining the Duke football staff.

Parker spent four seasons at Purdue, where he coached the tight ends (2013-14) and wide receivers (2015-16). He was the recruiting coordinator and also spent the final six weeks of 2016 as the Boilermakers interim head coach.

One of Parker's receivers, DeAngelo Yancey, finished with 49 receptions for 951 yards and 10 touchdowns, earning All-Big Ten Second Team accolades in 2016. He ended his career ranked No. 7 in receiving yards (2,344) and receiving touchdowns (20), and No. 16 in receptions (141). In 2015, Yancey had 48 receptions and led the team with 700 yards, while Danny Anthrop led the team with 57 catches.

Parker spent two years as the wide receivers coach at Marshall (2011-12). The Thundering Herd led the nation in passing offense, averaging 365.1 yards per game. Receiver Tommy Shuler led the country and set the school record for receptions (110) and was No. 18 nationally in yards per game (94.8). He earned All-Mid-American Conference First Team honors. In 2011, Aaron Dobson had 49 catches for 668 yards and a team-best 12 touchdowns.

Parker spent three seasons at UT-Martin as the running backs coach (2008), wide receivers coach (2009-10) and was the passing game coordinator and recruiting coordinator (2010). He started his coaching career at Raceland High School in Raceland, Kentucky, and spent the 2007 season as a graduate assistant coach at Kentucky.

Parker earned two degrees from Kentucky, his bachelor's degree in business management in 2003 and his master's in education in 2005. He was a four-year letterwinner for the Wildcats where he was a Southeastern Conference Scholar Athlete Honor Roll selection (2002-03) and CoSIDA Academic All-District IV Second Team honoree (2004).

A native of Louisa, Kentucky, Parker played at Lawrence County High School and set state receiving records with 238 catches, 4,814 yards and 52 touchdowns.

He, and his wife, Kandi, have three daughters: Kolbi, Gwyneth and Rosalyn and a son, Oliver.

CHAD SCOTT

Co-Offensive Coordinator/ Running Backs
@CoachChadScott

Chad Scott is in his second year on the Mountaineer coaching staff as the co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach.

Scott worked with head coach Neal Brown during three different coaching tenures: Kentucky (RB/2013-14), Texas Tech (RB/2010-12) and Troy (RB/2007-09). He also teammates with Neal Brown and Gerad Parker at UK.

He came to Morgantown after serving as the tight ends and hybrids coach at North Carolina from 2016-18.

In 2018, the Tar Heel offense ranked No. 31 nationally in total offense, averaging 442.1 yards per game. Tight end Carl Tucker was named to the Mackey Award preseason watch list, and he and his teammate, Jake Bargas, averaged more than 10 yards per reception.

In 2016, Scott was part of an offensive staff that oversaw the establishment of more than 40 individual and team records, including passing yards and passing yards per game.

Scott returned to Chapel Hill after coaching at Kentucky, where he tutored running backs from 2013-15 and was the run-game coordinator in 2014-15. He helped develop a solid Wildcat running attack that featured Stanley Williams, who rushed for 7.1 yards per carry, and Jojo Kemp, who gained 5.7 yards per attempt.

He spent three seasons at Texas Tech from 2010-12. While the Red Raiders were known for throwing the ball, Scott's running backs made significant contributions to the offense. The Red Raiders rushed for 135.7 yards per game and scored 52 rushing touchdowns during his three seasons. TTU's primary running backs averaged 5.0 yards per rushing attempt.

Scott inherited a running attack that ranked No. 115 in rushing offense in 2009 at 84 yards per game, improving that mark in his first season to No. 75 nationally with 141.3 yards per contest. The team's leading rusher, Baron Batch, was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers and spent three years with that team.

The improvements continued in Scott's second season as Texas Tech was on pace to have its best year rushing since the late 1990s before Tech's top two rushers sustained season-ending injuries.

The Red Raider running backs still rushed for 1,516 yards on the season.

In 2012, TTU averaged 139.9 yards per game on the ground with three backs rushing for more than 400 yards each.

Scott earned his first full-time coaching job at Troy as an assistant coach for running backs from 2007-09, helping lead the Trojans to three consecutive Sun Belt Conference Championships and a pair of appearances in the New Orleans Bowl.

Scott was a part of an offensive turnaround at Troy, inheriting an offense that ranked No. 66 in rushing offense and No. 77 in total offense prior to his arrival. In just one season, Troy moved to No. 35 nationally in rushing offense with 182.6 yards per game and No. 16 in total offense with 452.8 yards per contest. In his final season at Troy, the Trojans ranked No. 3 in the nation in total offense.

In each of Scott's first two seasons, he coached an All-Sun Belt Conference player in Kenny Cattouse and DuJuan Harris. Harris, who has played in the NFL for seven years, ranked No. 2 in the conference in rushing in 2008 with 1,077 yards

In Scott's last season at Troy, he coached Shawn Southward, who rushed for 602 yards and 12 touchdowns, earning Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year honors.

A native of Plant City, Florida, Scott began his collegiate playing career at Kentucky before transferring to North Carolina, where he lettered in 2003 and 2005. He earned first-team All-ACC honors from ESPN.com after rushing for 796 yards and eight touchdowns as a senior. Scott made his first career start as a Tar Heel against No. 4 Miami and rushed for a career-high 175 yards on 25 carries and scored twice in a 31-28 victory.

Scott spent time in the National Football League with the Cleveland Browns and Pittsburgh Steelers before returning to his alma mater in 2006 as a graduate assistant video analyst.

He graduated from UNC in 2004 with a degree in sociology. He is married to the former Shambrica Jones, who played basketball at Kentucky.

The couple has a daughter, Kori, and a son, Jakobe.

JEFF KOONZ

Special Teams Coordinator/
Inside Linebackers
@CoachKoonz

Jeff Koonz is in his first year on the Mountaineer coaching staff as the special teams coordinator/inside linebackers coach.

Koonz came to West Virginia after serving as the inside linebackers coach at Ole Miss for the 2019 season. Two of his linebackers, Lakia Henry (81 tackles) and Jacquez Jones (62 tackles), were two of the three top tacklers for the Rebels and Jones tied for second on the team in tackles for loss (6.5). The defense finished with 30 sacks for the season, ranking No. 2 in the SEC and No. 25 nationally.

Prior to that, Koonz spent two years at North Texas, coaching the linebackers, before being promoted to co-defensive coordinator for the 2018 season. He helped develop E.J. Ejiya, who led UNT in tackles, tackles for loss and sacks both years.

Koonz spent three years at Cincinnati, coaching the safeties in 2014, and linebackers in 2015 and 2016. In 2015, he mentored second-team All-AAC selection Eric Wilson and freshman standout Bryce Jenkinson, who finished first (106) and third (59) on the team in tackles, respectively. Cincinnati finished its 2014 campaign with a 9-4 record, an American Athletic Conference Championship and a matchup against Virginia Tech in the Military Bowl.

Before his tenure at Cincinnati, Koonz spent four seasons at Louisiana Tech. During the 2013 campaign, Tech's first as a member of Conference USA, he coached the linebackers, led by Conference USA honorable mention player Daniel Cobb, who finished the season with 82 total tackles. In 2011, Tech's starting linebackers Adrien Cole and Jay Dudley accounted for 230 total tackles - 65 percent of Tech's tackles for the season. Cole led the team with 128 tackles and 13 tackles for a loss as he was named first team All-Western Athletic Conference and the WAC Defensive Player of the Year. Dudley was responsible for 102 tackles, eight tackles for a loss and four interceptions, three of which were returned for touchdowns. In 2010, his first year at Louisiana Tech, three of his linebackers finished the season in the top four on the team in tackles, with Cole earning second-team All-WAC honors.

The Wallkill, New York, native previously served as a defensive quality control assistant at Texas, helping lead the Longhorns to a Big 12 title and an appearance in the 2009 BCS national championship game against Alabama. He also served at Texas as a graduate assistant from 2005-06 and linebackers' coach toward the conclusion of the 2006 season. The Longhorns won the Big 12 championship and national championship in 2005.

Prior to his second stint at Texas, Koonz was the secondary coach at Iowa State for two seasons under Gene Chizik, while also assisting with special teams from 2007-08. Koonz was also a graduate assistant coach at Auburn during the 2004 campaign under Tommy Tuberville, coaching the secondary. While at Auburn, he worked on staffs that led the Tigers to the 2002 Capital One Bowl championship, a 2003 Music City Bowl victory, the 2004 SEC championship and a win in the 2004 Nokia Sugar Bowl.

He graduated from Auburn in 2004 with a bachelor's of science degree in physical education and received his master's degree in educational administration from Texas in 2006.

Koonz, and his wife, Maura, have a daughter, Mary Margaret, a son, Jameson, and daughter MacKenzie, who arrived in April. His father, also named Jeff Koonz, just retired after serving for 15 years as the head coach at Holmes Community College in Goodman, Mississippi.

JAHMILE ADDAE

Cornerbacks
@Coach_Addae

Former Mountaineer all-conference safety Jahmile Addae is in his second year as the Mountaineers cornerbacks coach.

In his first year at WVU, he coached two All-Big 12 Conference selections in Keith Washington II and Josh Norwood and freshman All-American Tykee Smith. Washington II finished with a team-leading three interceptions and a team-tying nine pass breakups for 12 passes defended, ranking No. 23 nationally. Hakeem Bailey finished with one interception and tied Washington II for the team lead with nine pass breakups, ranking No. 9 in the Big 12. Smith was second on the team in interceptions with two, including one he returned for a touchdown against Iowa State.

Addae returned home to West Virginia University in January 2019, after serving as the defensive backs coach and assisting with several special teams' phases at Minnesota in 2018. His punt return unit finished No. 1 in the nation (22.3), punt return defense was No. 2 (1.11) and the kickoff return unit finished No. 26 nationally (23.4).

Prior to Minnesota, Addae spent five years at Arizona, coaching the defensive backs in 2016-17 and serving as an analyst from 2013-15.

Addae developed a youthful defensive secondary into some of the team's top performers. In 2017, Lorenzo Burns, Demetrius Flannigan-Fowles, Scottie Young and Jace Whittaker combined for 261 tackles, 24 pass breakups and 12 interceptions.

In 2010-11, Addae was the running backs coach at Cincinnati, where he mentored All-Big East Second-Team selection Isaiah Pead. Pead rushed for 1,029 yards, ranking No. 1 in the conference and in the top-10 nationally in yards per carry (6.6).

Pead averaged 93.6 yards per game and was Cincinnati's first 1,000-yard rusher in almost a decade and at the time, the Bearcats' seventh player to hit the mark.

Addae was recognized by Rivals.com as one of the top-10 recruiters in the Big East Conference. Before coaching the Bearcats, Addae served as Cincinnati's director of player development. He also managed many of the team's off-the-field responsibilities, including the Cats In The Community program.

Prior to his time at Cincinnati, he was a defensive graduate assistant at Michigan, where he worked with the Wolverines' secondary and scout team offense.

After graduating from WVU in 2006, Addae was a graduate assistant in the football video department at West Virginia.

The Valrico, Florida, native was a four-year starter, two-time captain and two-time All-Big East defensive back at West Virginia.

Addae, who is tied for the WVU record for most pass breakups in a game (5, Rutgers, 2002), finished his WVU career with 253 tackles, including 152 solo stops and 25 pass breakups, ranking No. 5 in program history. He also ranks No. 3 in single-season pass breakups with 16 during the 2002 season.

He was selected for the Senior Bowl in 2006 and participated in the NFL Combine. He signed a free agent contract with his hometown Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2006 and spent the end of the season with the Indianapolis Colts.

Addae, and his wife, Maryann, have three sons, Agyeman, Ayden and Amaree.

JEFF CASTEEL

Outside Linebackers

Jeff Casteel returned to West Virginia on March 27, 2020 as a defensive analyst and was promoted to coach the outside linebackers on July 27.

In his first stint at WVU, he served as the Mountaineers' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach from 2002-11 and the defensive line coach in 2001.

He returned after serving as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Nevada for the past three years. During his tenure at WVU, the Mountaineers experienced one of their greatest periods of success, including winning three BCS bowl wins, 2006 Sugar Bowl, 2008 Fiesta Bowl and the 2012 Orange Bowl.

He brings 33 years of defensive coaching experience, including 27 years as a defensive coordinator. He has helped guide teams to 14 conference championships and 15 bowl appearances and has coached numerous All-Americans and professional players. He was named the rivals defensive coordinator of the year in 2007, Big East Defensive Coordinator of the Year in 2008, a Broyles Award nominee (five times) and the Football Scoop Linebacker Coach of the Year in 2014.

In 2019, the Wolfpack finished 7-6 and earned a spot in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. Defensive lineman Dom Peterson was ranked No. 24 nationally in tackles for loss and No. 25 in sacks and cornerback Daniel Brown finished No. 15 nationally in interceptions per game.

In 2018, five of his starters earned All-Mountain West honors, including Malik Reed, who signed with the Denver Broncos following the NFL Draft. His defense was ranked No. 3 nationally in red zone defense, No. 8 in tackles for loss, No. 10 in third-down defense, No. 27 in sacks and No. 39 in rushing defense. From his first year to his second year, the Nevada defense improved from allowing 208.2 yards per game rushing to 142 and dropped the total defense from allowing 471.3 yards to 378.3 yards per game. Four of his players earned All-Mountain West Conference honors.

Prior to that, Casteel served as the defensive coordinator at Arizona from 2012-16 where he helped lead the Wildcats to the 2014 Pac-12 South championship and four bowl game appearances, including the 2014 Fiesta Bowl. The defense aided in setting a school record for most wins over a four-year period. He coached one of the top players in school history, unanimous All-American Scooby Wright, who was the winner of the Bronko Nagurski Award, Rotary Lombardi Award and the Chuck Bednarik Award along with being named the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year.

Casteel coached at West Virginia from 2001-11, spending his first year as the defensive line coach, second year as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach and then the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the next nine years.

During that span, the defense helped the Mountaineers win six Big East Conference championships and produced four All-Americans, including consensus All-American Grant Wiley, three Academic All-Americans, nine all-conference honoree and 23 professional players. The Mountaineers finished No. 3 in the nation in total defense in 2010, No. 7 in 2007 and No. 15 in 2005.

He also spent time at UTEP as the defensive ends coach (2000) and at Shepherd University, first as the defensive line and strength coach from 1988-90 and as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator from 1991-2000.

Casteel earned his bachelor's (1984) and master's degrees (1986) from California University of Pennsylvania. He started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater from 1984-86, before becoming the defensive coordinator at Palmetto High School in Miami, Florida, and was a training camp assistant with the Baltimore Stallions of the Canadian Football League in 1989.

Casteel, and his wife, Rosemary, have two children, Jacob, a graduate assistant football coach at Boise State, and Sarah, a graduate student at West Virginia University.

JORDAN LESLEY

Defensive Line
@CoachLesley_WVU

Jordan Lesley is in his second year on the Mountaineer Football coaching staff as the defensive line coach.

In 2019, his defensive line enjoyed a successful season for the Mountaineer defense, finishing No. 25 nationally in sacks and No. 35 in tackles for loss. Defensive linemen Darius and Dante Stills were tied for No. 2 in the Big 12 in sacks and Darius was No. 5 in tackles for loss and Dante was No. 10. The Stills brothers earned All-Big 12 Conference honors, Darius on first team and Dante on second team.

Lesley joined the Mountaineer coaching staff as the defensive line coach in 2019. He came with Brown and defensive coordinator Vic Koenning after serving as an assistant coach at Troy for three years (2016-18), the first two years as the defensive tackles coach and the 2018 season as the defensive line coach.

From 2016-18, Troy's defense allowed 20.8 points per game, ranking No. 4 nationally among non-power 5 schools. In 2018, the Trojans were ranked No. 10 nationally in sacks, No. 16 in tackles for loss, No. 24 in rushing defense, No. 28 in scoring defense and No. 31 in total defense. Three of Lesley's defensive linemen were named to the All-Sun Belt Conference team, including Trevon Saunders, who earned first-team honors. Troy finished 10-3, tied for first place in the Sun Belt Conference Eastern Division, and defeated Buffalo, 42-32, in the Dollar General Bowl.

Prior to Troy, Lesley was the defensive coordinator at East Mississippi Community College in Scooba, Mississippi (2013-15), before serving two stints at Northwest Mississippi Community College in Senatobia, Mississippi, first as defensive line coach in 2010 and then as the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach in 2012. He also spent two stints at Kilgore College in Kilgore, Texas, first as the linebackers coach from 2007-09, and as the defensive coordinator in 2011. He spent a year as a graduate assistant coach at Troy in 2006.

While at East Mississippi, Lesley's defenses allowed an average of just 10.3 points and 232.1 yards per game as the Lions posted a combined 32-1 record with national titles in 2013 and 2014. Additionally, the Lions tallied 149 quarterback sacks and 57 interceptions in his three seasons.

In his first season at East Mississippi, the Lions recorded an NJCAA-best 67 sacks and finished second nationally with 30 interceptions and by allowing just 9.8 points per game.

The 2012 NWCC squad claimed the school's first bowl victory in 20 years and earned a No. 9 NJCAA final ranking. The 2010 Northwest team posted an undefeated regular season on the way to finishing with a No. 6 national ranking.

Lesley helped lead Kilgore to the 2007 Southwest Junior College Football Conference Championship en route to an appearance in the Heart of Texas Bowl. During his four seasons at Kilgore, Lesley helped direct the Rangers to three consecutive playoff appearances while helping tutor 11 players that went on to sign at four-year schools, including six NJCAA All-Americans.

As a graduate assistant at Troy, he began his coaching career on the 2006 Sun Belt Conference championship team. The Trojans won seven of their last eight games that season, including a 41-17 victory over Rice in the New Orleans Bowl.

Lesley was a versatile player for the Trojans and was a key part of teams that successfully made the transition to the FBS ranks. A two-year starter at tight end, Lesley helped lead Troy to the 2004 Silicon Valley Bowl and was named a team captain.

A native of Fulton, Mississippi, Lesley was a three-time all-district performer at Itawamba Agricultural High School, earning Class 4A All-State Second Team as a senior in 1999.

Lesley and his wife, Ann-Katherine, have two daughters, Mary-Kate and Mae-Blake.

SEAN REAGAN

Quarterbacks
@CoachSeanReagan

Sean Reagan is in his second year on the Mountaineer coaching staff as the quarterbacks coach.

In 2019, quarterback Austin Kendall averaged 20.8 completions per game, ranking No. 4 in the Big 12 and No. 25 nationally, and Jarret Doege led WVU to wins in two of its final three games of the season.

Reagan came to West Virginia in 2019 after serving as an assistant coach at Troy from 2008-18, including the last four years as a member of Brown's staff. He was the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2018, oversaw the quarterbacks and running backs the previous three years (2014-17) and was the quarterbacks coach from 2011-14. He also served as a graduate assistant in 2010 at Texas Tech, where he worked with Brown, the offensive coordinator of the Red Raiders at the time.

In 2018, Troy finished with a 10-3 record and tied for the Eastern Division championship in the Sun Belt Conference. The Trojans went on to defeat Buffalo in the Dollar General Bowl, marking the third consecutive season with a bowl win. Quarterback Kaleb Barker started the first six games and posted more than 1,000 passing yards and 10 touchdowns and ran for 261 yards and three touchdowns, before a season-ending injury forced him to hand the reins to Sawyer Smith. Prior to that, Reagan worked with three record-setting quarterbacks at Troy: Brandon Silvers (2014-17), Corey Robinson (2011-13) and Levi Brown (2008-09).

In 2017, Troy finished the season 11-2 with a Sun Belt Conference championship, New Orleans Bowl victory and a regular-season win at No. 22 LSU, ending its 49-game home non-conference winning streak. Troy finished the 2016 season 10-3 with a victory on the Dollar General Bowl, the first top-25 ranking in school and Sun Belt history and tied for the best win-improvement in the country.

Reagan also coached the running backs for three years on Brown's staff. During that time, Jordan Chunn finished with 1,288 yards and 16 touchdowns and went on to set the Troy career rushing and total touchdown records in 2017. He also mentored running back Brandon Burks, Troy's eighth 1,000-yard rusher, finishing the 2015 season with 1,005 yards and seven touchdowns.

Robinson also had an impressive career with the Trojans, finishing as one of the top passers in school, Sun Belt and NCAA history. He led Troy with school and league records for touchdown passes, attempts, completions, passing yards and total offense. He finished with career as one of five players in NCAA history to throw for more than 3,000 yards and have more than 3,000 yards of total offense in four different years. He finished No. 9 in FBS history in passing yards and set the NCAA record for completion percentage in a game (30-of-32 against UAB in 2013), earning Capital One National Player of the Week honors.

After returning to Troy in 2011 as the quarterbacks coach, Reagan coached All-Sun Belt performer Deon Anthony. In 2012, Anthony set the Troy single-season record by completing 69.9 percent of his passes (79-of-113) and was named the Allstate Sugar Bowl Manning Award Player of the Week.

As a graduate assistant coach in 2008-09, Reagan was on the Trojans' staff that won two Sun Belt Conference championships, including finishing with an undefeated conference record in 2009.

Reagan began his coaching career at the high-school level as an assistant at Rockdale High School in Conyers, Georgia, for four years (1998-01), before moving to Chestatee High School in Gainesville, Georgia, for four years (2002-06), including the final two as the offensive coordinator. He spent the 2006-07 seasons as the offensive coordinator at Monroe Area High School in Monroe, Georgia, before heading to Troy.

A native of Conyers, Georgia, Reagan received his bachelor's degree in physical education and leadership from North Georgia College & State University in 2008. He, and his wife, Elizabeth, are the parents of three daughters: Heidi, Chloe and Maggie.

TRAVIS TRICKETT

Tight Ends/Inside Receivers
@CoachTTrickett

Travis Trickett is in his second year on the Mountaineer Football coaching staff as the inside receivers and tight ends coach.

In 2019, receiver T.J. Simmons was WVU's third-leading receiver with 35 catches and four touchdowns. He finished in Big 12 Conference's top 20 in receptions per game, receiving yards per game and receiving touchdowns. Isaiah Esdale showed a lot of improvement over the course of the season and caught the winning touchdown at TCU.

Trickett returned home to West Virginia in 2019. He was a student assistant coach at West Virginia from 2003-07. His father, Rick, a longtime collegiate offensive line coach, was an assistant coach at WVU in 1978-79 and 2001-06. His brother Chance is a NFL Scout for the Los Angeles Rams and his younger brother, Clint, was a starting quarterback for WVU during the 2013 and 2014 seasons. Clint now serves as the offensive coordinator at Florida Atlantic.

Trickett served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Georgia State in 2017-18.

In 2018, his quarterback, Dan Ellington, threw only five interceptions in 292 pass attempts, ranking No. 2 in the Sun Belt Conference and No. 14 in the nation. One of his receivers, Penny Hart, a three-time All-Sun Belt selection, finished his career as the fourth-leading receiver in conference history and was selected to play in the Reese's Senior Bowl. Offensive lineman Hunter Atkinson also was named to the all-league team.

In 2017, the Panthers finished with a school-record seven wins, marking their first winning season at the FBS level. His offense established school records for highest completion percentage and fewest interceptions in a season (9) as well as most total yards in a game (670) and most points against an FBS opponent (47).

Quarterback Conner Manning earned All-Sun Belt honors and was the most valuable player in the Panthers' bowl win over Western Kentucky, the first bowl game victory in school history. Hart led the league with a school-record 74 receptions for 1,121 yards and eight touchdowns.

Trickett was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Florida Atlantic in 2016. His offensive unit set FAU season records for rushing yards, yards per carry and rushing touchdowns, as well as most yards in a game, while the Owls receiving corps produced seven 100-yard efforts.

Prior to FAU, Trickett served five seasons at Samford, including the last four as its offensive coordinator. He helped the Bulldogs record five straight winning seasons, highlighted by a Southern Conference championship and NCAA FCS playoff berth in 2013. He coached 23 all-conference selections in four years as the play-caller.

In 2015, Trickett employed a pair of quarterbacks, and the duo led the nation in completion percentage (69.7 percent) while combining for 3,662 yards and 22 touchdowns. The Bulldogs had a season-high 752 yards against Florida A&M and set school season records for completions (324) and first downs (324).

Samford's 2014 offense averaged more than 30 points per game while posting the program's largest margin of victory in a Southern Conference game (45-0 at Furman) and the program's largest output in a SoCon game (63 vs. VMI).

In 2013, he mentored record-setting quarterback Andy Summerlin, the conference player of the year, who passed for a school-record 3,640 yards.

He originally went to Samford in 2011 to coach the slot receivers and tight ends.

Trickett's coaching experience also includes graduate assistantships at Alabama and Florida State. He spent 2007 as an offensive graduate assistant on Nick Saban's staff, and then three seasons (2008-10) with the Seminoles, working under Bobby Bowden and Jimbo Fisher.

During these two stints, he worked with quarterbacks John Parker Wilson and Greg McElroy at Alabama, and Christian Ponder and E.J. Manuel at FSU.

Trickett began his coaching career as a student assistant at West Virginia from 2003-07, where he served under coach Rich Rodriguez and worked with record-setting quarterback Pat White.

A native of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, Trickett earned his bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing from West Virginia in 2007 and his master's degree from Florida State in sports administration in 2009.

Trickett, and his wife, Tiffany, also a WVU graduate with a bachelor's degree in nursing, have three children, Maverick, Camilla and Holden.

DONTAE WRIGHT

Safeties
@CoachWright37

Dontae Wright is in his first season on the Mountaineer coaching staff and will coach the safeties in 2020. He comes to Morgantown after serving as the safeties coach at Western Michigan for the past two seasons.

His safeties helped WMU turn around its scoring defense in 2019, yielding 25.9 points per game, the best for the program since surrendering just 19.8 in 2016, and nearly nine points per game better than the 34.5 points a contest allowed in 2018.

The unit was led by senior Justin Tranquill's 83 tackles and two interceptions and junior A.J. Thomas' 47 stops and six pass breakups. The group held three of its final five opponents to less than 150 passing yards. The 2018 season saw Wright guide Tranquill to 82 tackles and two pass breakups while Thomas finished with 47 stops.

Prior to WMU, Wright served as an assistant coach at Tennessee Tech for two seasons (2016-17), mentoring the specialists and the defensive ends. At the beginning of the 2017 season, Wright was promoted to defensive coordinator.

In 2017, the Golden Eagles yielded 15.8 points per game, dropping more than 11 points from the 2016 average of 26.9. Wright guided the 2016 defensive squad to five Ohio Valley Conference wins. The program ended the campaign on the upswing with consecutive victories against Tennessee State and Murray State.

Before joining Tennessee Tech, Wright spent three seasons (2013-15) at Morehead State. He was the defensive coordinator for the 2015 season and worked with the defensive line, was special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator during his tenure.

As the defensive coordinator, he lowered Morehead State's points allowed per game by 18.3, which was the second-largest improvement for all Division I schools, FBS and FCS, from the year prior. The Eagles ranked in the top 10 in the FCS for interceptions (18) and turnovers (28) and in the top 20 for tackles for loss.

Wright also made a coaching stop at Centre College and spent two seasons (2010-11) at North Alabama, helping the Lions to a combined 18-8 record and an NCAA Division II playoff appearance.

Wright was a graduate assistant at Kentucky from 2007-09, working with the linebackers his first season and the defensive line the last two. During his time in Lexington, the Wildcats made two Music City Bowl appearances and one Liberty Bowl trip.

As a player, Wright was a four-year linebacker at Miami (Ohio) from 2003-06 and was a part of two Mid-American Conference East Division championship teams. The RedHawks won the conference outright in 2003, earning a spot in the GMAC Bowl. They won won a division crown in 2004 and participated in the Independence Bowl.

A native of Louisa, Kentucky, Wright earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Miami in 2007.

In 2011, he created his own company, Grindtime Fitness and Performance, in which he provided personal training services. He has trained numerous professional athletes, including NFL players Jason Thompson, Marquette King, Dionte Dinkins, Ricardo Lockette, Narada Williams and Darnell Burks.

The Barnesville, Georgia, native received his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Fort Valley State in 2010 and his master's degree in exercise science from California University of Pennsylvania in 2011.

CHAD SNODGRASS

Strength and Conditioning Coach

Chad Snodgrass has been on the Mountaineer strength and conditioning staff since 2014. He works directly with the football program after serving as the strength and conditioning coach for the Mountaineer women's soccer, track and field, cross country and golf programs.

Prior to that, he spent two years as a graduate assistant with the WVU strength and conditioning program, working directly with the football team. Additionally, he assisted in program design and implementation for women's soccer. Snodgrass also assisted on the NFL combine preparation training of WVU alumni.

Prior to his time as a graduate assistant, Snodgrass served as an intern with the WVU strength and conditioning program. In addition to primarily assisting with the football program, he also worked with the baseball, wrestling, men's soccer, track and field and cross country teams.

Snodgrass is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) and Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified (SCCC).

A three-year varsity letterman for the WVU football team (2009-11), Snodgrass earned the "Hammer Award," given to the team's most dedicated and hardest working individual, and the "Iron Mountaineer Award," given to the hardest working member of the football team and voted upon by the strength and conditioning staff and members of the squad in 2011.

A Cross Lanes, West Virginia, native, Snodgrass received his bachelor's degree in multidisciplinary studies from WVU in 2011 and his master's in athletic coaching education from WVU in 2014. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two children, Maximus, and Scarlett.

ALEX MITCHELL

Strength and Conditioning Coach

Alex Mitchell has been a member of West Virginia's strength and conditioning staff since 2016, working with the Mountaineer football program.

Mitchell came to West Virginia after serving as a strength and conditioning graduate assistant coach at Ohio University for the two years. He assisted with the year-round speed and strength and conditioning program for the football program and worked with the offensive and defensive linemen on developing their hand placement and fighting technique.

He also implemented and oversaw the strength and conditioning programs for the swimming and diving, men's and women's golf, cheerleading and club ice hockey teams. He assisted with the implementation of the strength and conditioning plans for the wrestling, field hockey, women's basketball and women's soccer teams.

Mitchell served as a student assistant coach and intern with the Ohio football program for a semester before becoming a graduate assistant. He assisted the offensive line coach with position techniques and schemes, assisted with program operations and with the implementation of the football strength and conditioning program.

Mitchell, a certified National Strength Coaches' Association strength and conditioning coach, graduated from Ohio with a bachelor's degree in communications in 2012 and earned his master's degree in recreation and sport science in 2014. He was a two-year letterman on the offensive line for coach Frank Solich at OU, helping lead the Bobcats to two straight bowl appearances. Prior to OU, he played for coach Dave Hoover at Victor Valley College in Victorville, California.

BRITTNEY O'DELL

Assistant Athletics Director/
Student-Athlete Development

Brittney O'Dell is in her second year as the assistant athletics director for student-athlete development for Mountaineer football after previously serving as the associate director of student-athlete development for the football program since 2015.

O'Dell oversees the development of each football student-athlete by monitoring and tracking their academic progress, conducting testing upon initial enrollment, and producing individualized academic plans to ensure their academic success each semester until graduation.

She also provides guidance to the student-athletes, assists them with the organization and development of their course schedules each semester, helps oversee the study hall program and assists with test preparation, study skills and time management.

O'Dell and her team have implemented a comprehensive summer bridge program. The program includes academic screening and diagnostic testing, life skills sessions, college readiness workshops, and enrollment in a freshman seminar course that focuses on skill develop and sport optimization to help students successfully transition into college.

She also works in conjunction with the compliance department on both initial and continuing eligibility issues.

O'Dell works with on-campus student development offices including admissions, registrar and financial aid to determine eligibility, certification, scholarship and aid provision for class scheduling. She also works with on-campus officials to provide academic data to analyze and produce the football program's Academic Performance Rate.

O'Dell came to West Virginia after serving as a coordinator of academic advising services at UCF for four years (2011-15). She had direct oversight of academic advising, monitoring player progress, creating individualized academic plans, coordinating tutoring needs and ensuring academic success for the UCF defensive football players and the women's golf team.

Part of her responsibilities were overseeing the academic mentoring program where she was responsible for hiring graduate level academic mentors to help student-athletes with time management and organizational skills and also monitor and track their academic progress. She also served as a learning specialist with at-risk student-athletes during a portion of her time at UCF and was the liaison between her office and Student Accessibility Services.

O'Dell spent two years as a graduate assistant in the academic services department at UCF (2009-11), working with student-athletes in the sports of football, women's basketball, women's soccer, softball and rowing.

She served on multiple campus committees within the student development and enrollment services department, developing an academic mentoring program and training database for student-athletes.

O'Dell also served as an adjunct professor in the College of Education, mentoring students in the area of strategies for success in college. She developed, designed and created collaborative materials for the academic student-services area to market the services her unit provided to student-athletes.

She is a member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics. She is nationally certified and served on the 2014 regional planning committees and presented at the organization's national conference in June 2011.

O'Dell, a native of Orlando, Florida, graduated with a bachelor's degree in family and child sciences from Florida State in 2008 and earned a master's degree in educational leadership from UCF in 2011.

ZACH SEGER

Assistant Director for Student-Athlete Development

Zach Seger has been of a member of West Virginia's Student-Athlete Development Department, working with the Mountaineer football program since 2016. He served as an assistant academic coordinator for football for a year, before becoming an academic counselor, and has been promoted to Assistant Director for Student-Athlete Development in 2019.

As part of the student-athlete development unit, Seger provides academic support and guidance to football student-athletes, including organizing and implementing academic programs that ensures their growth in the classroom, in the community and on an individual level.

Seger maintains accurate records and knowledge of student-athlete academic schedules to notify coaches regarding classes, tests, appointment, study sessions and community service. He also maintains constant communications with the student-athletes and professors to evaluate progress and classroom performance.

Serving as the assistant academic coordinator for football at WVU, he assisted with the organization and implementation of academic support programs and advised student-athletes in selecting area of study and organizing their individual schedules. He worked with at-risk student athletes, facilitated daily tutor schedule and monitored study hall.

Seger served as a program coordinator graduate assistant in the Swanson School of Engineering at the University of Pittsburgh for two years. During that time, he also was a graduate academic counselor intern in the Office of Academic Support Services for Student Athletes.

Seger graduated cum laude in sport management with minors in business administration and communications from West Virginia in 2014 and earned his master's degree in higher education management from Pitt in 2016.

MEGHAN HENDRICK

Learning Specialist

Meghan Hendrick joined the student-athlete development unit in 2016, working directly with the Mountaineer football program. She started as an instructional assistant for a year (2016), then was the assistant learning specialist (2017-19), before being promoted to her current role as learning specialist.

Hendrick works primarily with student-athletes who have a documented learning disability. She provides one-on-one learning support to help ensure their success in the classroom.

Hendrick coordinates all individual psycho-educational testing for freshmen and transfer student-athletes, and then develops a plan specific to their academic needs. She also is responsible for monitoring and tracking their academic progress throughout the semester and throughout their academic career. Hendrick also serves as the staff liaison with the office of accessibility services on campus, where she ensures the student-athletes will have the proper assistance and accommodations necessary to be successful.

Prior to her current position at WVU, Hendrick was an English teacher at Woodgrove High School in Purcellville, Virginia, for three years, teaching A.P. language and composition, English 11 Academic, English 12 Inclusion and English 12 Academic. She provided academic support as a homebound instructor and served as a sponsor for numerous clubs, including the Student Government Freshman Class Council and Battle for the Books.

Hendrick graduated from Saint Vincent College in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in English literature and minor in secondary education. She earned her graduate certification in composition studies from Indiana University East in 2015 and her master's degree in English, also from IU-East in 2017. She holds teaching certifications in secondary education in Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia.

Hendrick, and her husband, Jacob, have a daughter, Teighan.

PATTY HARMAN

Assistant Learning Specialist

Patty Harman has been a member of West Virginia's Student-Athlete Development unit since 2010. She has been an assistant learning specialist with the Mountaineer Football program since 2012 and prior to that served as a student-athlete mentor for two years.

In her current role, she is responsible for providing academic support for student-athletes in the areas of study skills, note taking, time management, test-taking strategies, personal and skill development and instruction in course work.

She monitors and documents the academic progress of the student-athletes, assists the students with course schedules and selecting academic majors and assists student-athletes with learning disabilities to acquire and use accommodations.

Harman received her bachelor's degree from West Virginia in recreation and parks management in 1981 and her master's degree in industrial relations in 1983. She served as an instructor in the WVU Continuing and Professional Education Program from 1009-18.

She has served as a visiting lecturer for the WVU Davis College of Agriculture, National Resources and Design for four years, a recreation specialist for one year and a park specialist for four years with the Fairfax County Park Authority in Fairfax, Virginia, a life enhancement coordinator for the Fauquier County Parks and Recreation Department in Warrenton, Virginia, for one year and a community recreation coordinator for the Kanawha County Parks and Recreation Coordinator in Charleston, West Virginia for a year.

Since 2007, Harman serves as a volunteer with On Eagles' Wings Therapeutic Horsemanship program as a riding instructor giving lessons to children and adults with disabilities.

Harman, and her husband, Chuck, have two children, Charlie (wife, Paige) and Anne (husband, Lucas).

BLAKE BARNES

Assistant Learning Specialist

Blake Barnes joined the student-athlete development unit in January 2020, working with the football program.

He is responsible for providing academic support for student-athletes, teaching and working with them to enhance their study skills, note taking, time management and test-taking strategies. He also helps the student-athletes improve their reading comprehension and develop their writing skills. In addition, he works with student-athletes with learning disabilities to acquire and use accommodations and monitors and documents the academic progress of the student-athletes and assists with course scheduling

Barnes came to West Virginia after serving as a learning specialist intern at Minnesota (July-December 2019). He managed student-athletes from multiple varsity sports, monitored their academic coursework, grades and weekly progress and then communicated the results to their counselors.

Prior to that, he worked at the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs Athletics Department, first as a compliance intern (2017-18), before serving as a compliance and academic graduate assistant (2018-19).

Barnes, a member of the National Association of Academic and Student-Athlete Development Professionals, earned his bachelor's degree from Colorado-Colorado Springs in business with a dual emphasis in business administration and finance in 2017, and his master's degree in leadership, also from Colorado-Colorado Springs in 2019.

DR. A.J. MONSEAU

Medical Director/Head Team Physician

A.J. Monseau, M.D., WVU Medicine Emergency Medicine and Sports Medicine physician, has been the head team physician and medical director for WVU Athletics since 2017.

In 2016, Dr. Monseau served as the team physician for WVU Men's Basketball. He also served as team physician for USA Wrestling at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

As head team physician and medical director for WVU Athletics, Monseau leads the University's staff of team physicians and works in conjunction with the athletic training staff to provide healthcare to all student-athletes. This includes injury prevention, treatment, rehabilitation, education, and counseling.

Originally from the Northern Panhandle, Monseau received his medical degree from and completed his residency training at the WVU School of Medicine. He then completed fellowship training in primary care sports medicine at the University of Michigan School of Medicine. He returned to his alma mater upon completion of his fellowship in 2011.

Currently, Monseau is an associate professor in the WVU Department of Emergency Medicine. In addition to working as an attending physician in the J.W. Ruby Memorial Hospital Emergency Department, he also sees sports medicine patients through WVU Medicine Orthopaedics. He is board certified in emergency medicine and primary care sports medicine.

Athletics have always been a part of Monseau's life. After completing a three-sport career at Wheeling Park High School, Monseau carried his love of sports through his undergraduate education, during which he competed on the West Liberty University (then West Liberty State College) wrestling team for his father, who is a National Wrestling Hall of Fame coach. Though he gave up competing when he began medical school, he made sure to choose a specialty that would allow him to remain connected to competitive sports.

VINCE BLANKENSHIP

Assistant Athletics Director/
Head Athletic Trainer for Football

Vince Blankenship, a member of the West Virginia athletic training staff since 2014, is the assistant athletics director/head athletic trainer for football since 2019.

Prior to that, he was an assistant athletic trainer and physical therapist, working primarily with the Mountaineer football and golf programs. He was named athletics rehabilitation specialist in the fall of 2016.

Blankenship provides oversight of the athletics medical unit for the football team, including the day-to-day operation of the training room. He supervises the daily care, rehabilitation and prevention of athletic injuries for the football program as well as supervise the long-term rehabilitation with all other WVU sports on campus. He also will continue his duties as an instructor in the WVU athletic training education program.

Prior to coming to WVU, he worked with the Jacksonville Jaguars, Detroit Lions and the University of Georgia football programs. While working towards his doctorate in physical therapy at Georgia Regents University, which he earned in 2013, Blankenship worked as a part-time athletic trainer for University Hospital and Georgia Regents University, covering high school and collegiate sports.

Blankenship earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science with an athletic training emphasis at Georgia in 2009. Additionally, he is a Titleist Performance Institute Level II Medical Professional.

He and his wife, Idania, have a son, Noah.

CHRIS SCHULTHEISS

Associate Director of Sports Medicine

Chris Schultheiss is the associate director of sports medicine for Mountaineer football since 2019, working primarily with the Mountaineer football program. He started his tenure at WVU in 2014 as an assistant athletic trainer.

He assists with the day-to-day care, rehabilitation and prevention of athletic injuries for the football program. He also has duties as an instructor in the WVU athletic training education program.

Schultheiss came to WVU after serving as an assistant athletic trainer at Rutgers for three years. He provided individualized clinical rehabilitation, treatment and injury prevention with sport supervision of wrestling and assisting with football, as well as communicating with team doctors and specialists.

He also served stints as an assistant athletic trainer at Vermont (2010-11) and American (2006-10) and was the head athletic trainer at Catholic (2002-06) and Elizabeth City State (2000-02).

Schultheiss earned his bachelor's degree from James Madison in 1998 and his master's degree from Temple in 2000. He holds certifications as a clinical instructor, a certified athletic trainer, CPR/PR-AED by the American Red Cross and is certified with the Graston Technique. He and his wife, Jennifer, live in Morgantown.

ZACH FOSTER

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Zach Foster joined the athletics staff at West Virginia as an assistant athletics trainer in 2019.

Foster assists with the day-to-day care, rehabilitation and prevention of athletic injuries for the football and golf programs. He also has duties as an instructor in the WVU athletics training education program.

Foster spent the 2019 NFL season as a seasonal athletic trainer with the New England Patriots. He performed orthopedic and general medical evaluations, provided medical coverage for practices, games and free-agent workouts, assisted with concussion testing, collaborated with team physical therapists on rehabilitation programming and on-field progressions, managed injury tracking, patient documentation and athlete participation with NFL Electronic Medical Records, assisted with hiring summer and seasonal athletic training interns, administered and analyzed Functional Movement Screening to develop corrective exercise programs, managed rehabilitation supply inventory among other duties. Additionally, he accompanied the Patriots to Super Bowl LIII.

Prior to his stint in New England, Foster spent a year as part of the post-professional residency program at The Steadman Clinic in Vail, Colorado. In this role, he worked with orthopedic surgeons in a clinical and surgical practice with specialties that include Sports Medicine, Foot and Ankle, Spine, Wrist and Hand, Total Joint Replacement and Pain Management and assisted with on-site athletic training services for the U.S. Ski Team, Vail Mountain School Athletics, Vail Recreation District and Maverick Sports Promotions.

A native of Roanoke, Virginia, Foster served as an athletic training intern for the Florida State football program (2016-17) and was a graduate assistant with the Pitt football program (2014-16). He earned his bachelor of science degree in athletics training from Alabama in 2014, before completing his master of science degree in health and rehabilitation sciences with a concentration in sports medicine from Pitt in 2016.

ATTENDANCE - 61,891

The Neal Brown era at West Virginia got started in winning fashion with a 20-13 victory over James Madison in front of a home sellout crowd of 61,891.

Mountaineer fans needed their flipcard to keep track of all the new faces in the Mountaineer lineup as nine players made their first start in a WVU uniform and 15 players saw their first action.

West Virginia had a chance to score first but could not convert on two fumble recoveries and a missed 49-yard Evan Staley field goal attempt.

The missed opportunities allowed the Dukes to take a 7-0 lead at the 1:47 mark of the first quarter, when Soloman Vanhorse scored on a 9-yard run.

The Mountaineers cut into the James Madison lead at the 12:33 mark of the second quarter on a 38-yard Staley field goal, capping an 11-play, 53-yard drive.

After West Virginia ended a James Madison scoring threat with a Darius Stills blocked field goal, the score remained 7-3 at the half.

First half statistics showed James Madison with 206 total yards to West Virginia's 107, but the Mountaineer defense kept the game in check heading into the second half.

The Mountaineers were a different team with the start of third quarter play and took a 10-7 lead on a 28-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Austin Kendall to receiver George Campbell. The scoring drive was sparked by a 41-yard completion by Kendall to receiver Tevin Bush on the first play from scrimmage. The scoring drive covered 82 yards in seven plays.

The Dukes tied the game at 10-10 on a 34-yard field goal by Ethan Ratke, setting the stage for the fourth quarter.

However, you could see Kendall and the Mountaineer offense getting more comfortable and in rhythm as the game continued. A second Staley field goal from 43 yards gave West Virginia a slim 13-10 advantage with 10:20 left in the game.

As the Mountaineer defense kept the Dukes in-check for most of the game, the unit came up with several big plays and none bigger than Keith Washington II's interception of JMU quarterback Ben DiNucci with 10:08 left to play.

West Virginia turned the turnover into six points three plays later, when Kendall found Bush in the end zone for a 22-yard scoring reception.

Leading 20-10 with 8:37 remaining, West Virginia carried the momentum, but the Dukes would not go away and answered with a 31-yard field goal by Ratke with 4:33 left in the contest.

Two WVU offensive drives could not put the game away, but the Mountaineer defense held James Madison on its final two possessions for the historic first victory of the Brown era.

Kendall's final numbers in his WVU debut stood at 260 yards passing and two scores. Linebacker Josh Chandler collected 14 tackles as the WVU defense accounted for six tackles for loss, four sacks, and five pass breakups.

The Dukes got 156 passing yards from DiNucci, 55 rushing from Vanhorse and 66 yards receiving from Brandon Polk. Dimitri Holloway totaled 13 tackles.

Final numbers showed WVU with 34 yards rushing and 260 passing for 294 yards of offense. JMU accounted for 172 yards on the ground and 156 passing for 328 yards of offense.

ATTENDANCE - 51,215

Missouri scored 14 points off two first half interceptions and never looked back as the Tigers defeated West Virginia, 38-7, in front of 51,215 at Memorial Stadium.

While the Missouri defense ignited its offense, West Virginia never got its offense in gear and struggled for most of the game. A late fourth-quarter touchdown pass kept the Mountaineers from being shut out for the first time since 2013.

The Tigers struggled at Milan Puskar Stadium back in 2016 in losing to West Virginia and returned the favor this time around.

After both teams traded opening possessions, Missouri started the scoring with 8:34 left in the first quarter on a 43-yard field goal by Tucker McCann.

West Virginia spent the first half deep in its own territory as the offense could not muster many positive yards. Missouri's first of three interceptions came with 5:27 left in the opening quarter, when Nick Bolton picked off an Austin Kendall pass and returned it 18 yards.

The interception set up Mizzou's first touchdown, when Clemson transfer quarterback Kelly Bryant connected with Albert Okwuegbunam three plays later for a 26-yard scoring toss.

The Tigers took the 10-0 lead into the second quarter where they broke open the game with 21 unanswered points to take a commanding 31-0 lead at the half.

A Ronnell Perkins interception set up the next score at the 13:02 mark of the second quarter. A 10-yard touchdown run by Larry Rountree capped an 11-play drive and upped Mizzou's lead to 17-0.

After a missed West Virginia field goal, Missouri went on a 12-play, 72-yard drive that took 4:44 off the clock and resulted in a second Bryant touchdown pass to Okwuegbunam. The 16-yard completion gave the Tigers a 24-0 advantage with 5:36 remaining in the half.

Missouri closed the scoring in the opening half with an 11-play drive that saw Bryant toss his third touchdown pass, as Barrett Banister hauled in the 3-yard toss with 15 seconds left for a 31-0 Tiger lead.

The Tigers possessed the football nearly four minutes longer than the Mountaineers in the first half, ran 17 more offensive plays and outgained them, 274-78.

West Virginia regrouped at halftime and played the Tigers even in the final two quarters, but it was too little, too late. Neither team scored in the third quarter, and Bolton's second pick in the game was returned 20 yards for a score, giving the Tigers 21 points off interceptions.

Trailing 38-0, WVU got on the board with 5:13 left, when Kendall connected with receiver George Campbell for a 46-yard touchdown to deny the shutout.

Kendall finished with 137 passing yards for WVU, and Josh Chandler led the defense with seven stops. Along with his three TD passes, Bryant passed for 150, while Rountree gained 99-yards rushing. The Tiger defense got seven tackles from Cale Garrett and Bolton.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 30 yards rushing and 141 passing to total 171 yards of offense. Missouri totaled 232 yards on the ground and 150 through the air for 382 yards of offense.

The win gives Mizzou a 4-3 advantage in the series, including a 2-1 mark in Columbia.

West Virginia turned in its best performance to date in the 2019 season with an all-around strong showing in defeating NC State 44-27 in front of 57,052 fans at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The Mountaineer offense, defense and special teams performed well in defeating the previously unbeaten Wolfpack. The offense scored six touchdowns, the special teams blocked a punt and the defense held the Wolfpack to just six second-half points to secure the victory for the Mountaineers.

West Virginia got its offense in gear on its first possession, when quarterback Austin Kendall connected with receiver Sam James for a 20-yard scoring toss. A 24-yard rush by receiver Sean Ryan was the big play in the drive that ended at 66 yards in five plays.

NC State answered the score with a 10-play, 75-yard drive that consumed 4:17 off the clock.
Quarterback Matthew McKay connected with Thayer Thomas for an 8-yard touchdown to even the game at 7-7.

West Virginia found its big-play ability in game three, which was something lacking in the team's first two games of the season. The Mountaineers went back on top, 14-7, on a 23-yard run by tailback Kennedy McKoy with 3:49 left in the quarter. The 75-yard drive took just four plays thanks to a 51-yard completion from Kendall to James to set up the score.

West Virginia took the seven-point advantage into the second quarter, but the Wolfpack tied the game at 14-14 with 12:06 left in the half. NC State again consumed a lot of clock with the 5:19 drive that went 80 yards in 12 plays and ended with Jordan Houston's 1-yard scamper.

Later in the quarter, NC State took its only lead in the game, when a 39-yard completion from McKay to Cary Angeline set up a trick play. After catching a backward pass from McKay, Thomas, from his receiver position, hit Angeline for an 18-yard touchdown pass.

The Mountaineers tied the game before halftime with a 75-yard, nine-play drive that ended with Kendall's 13-yard scoring strike to receiver George Campbell.

On the first possession of the third quarter, West Virginia regained the lead for good, driving 89 yards on 11 plays and settling for a 23-yard field goal from Evan Staley for a 24-21 advantage. Kendall turned in big completions to James for 25 yards, and Ryan for 22 yards to keep the drive alive.

Two NC State drives later, WVU's Logan Thimons blocked a Wolfpack punt, setting up the offense at the 12-yard line. Two McKoy rushes later upped West Virginia's advantage to 31-21 as the senior scored from 5 yards out.

Before the end of the third, the Wolfpack chipped into the deficit with a 41-yard, Christopher Dunn field goal, followed by his 37-yarder. The second Dunn field goal was set up by Drake Thomas' 11-yard interception return off an errant Kendall pass, setting up the Wolfpack offense at the WVU 21-yard line.

West Virginia's defense kept the visitors out of the end zone, holding the scoring possessions to field goals, which was key to building momentum on the side of the home team.

Leading 31-27 heading into the fourth, West Virginia put the game away with two touchdowns.

The first came at the 12:24 mark, when a 25-yard run by Kendall set up his 9-yard touchdown pass to receiver Ali Jennings.

While the Mountaineer defense continued to keep NC State off the board, the offense closed the scoring with 3:04 left on tailback Leddie Brown's 3-yard rush. Brown accounted for all 23 yards in the drive on four rushes.

Kendall had his best day as a Mountaineer with 272 yards passing and three touchdowns. James was the favorite target with nine catches for 155 yards, while McKoy totaled 66 yards on the ground. The WVU defense was led by defensive back Hakeem Bailey with nine tackles.

For NC State, McKay finished with 207 yards passing, while Emeka Emezie caught 12 passes for 103 yards. Zonovan Knight added 75 yards to the Wolfpack rushing totals, while Ricky Person totaled 52 yards on the ground. Tanner Ingle led the defense with seven stops and one tackle for loss.

Final totals showed West Virginia with 173 yards rushing and 272 passing to total 445 yards of total offense. NC State finished with 144 yards on the ground and 225 through the air for 369 total yards.

With the win, the Mountaineers broke a three-game losing streak to NC State and now lead the series by a 6-5 count. West Virginia finished the 2019 regular season nonconference slate with a 2-1 mark.

West Virginia football coach Neal Brown got his first road win, first Big 12 win and first Big 12 road win all in one day as his Mountaineers downed Kansas, 29-24, at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium.

Brown and Kansas coach Les Miles were coaching in their fourth game at their new schools, and the Jayhawks quickly showed the rest of the Big 12 how improved they were under their new head coach.

However, West Virginia played well enough and did enough good things to garner the all-important road conference victory. Even though the Mountaineers were a five-point favorite, many critics saw this as a chance for Kansas to make a statement within the conference.

West Virginia scored first and never relinquished the lead but for a stretch in the first half when Kansas pulled even at 7-7.

WVU quarterback Austin Kendall engineered a 13-play, 71-yard drive that took a whopping 5:59 off the first-quarter clock and put the Mountaineers up 7-0, when Kennedy McKoy rushed in from 3-yards out.

Kansas bounced back in the second quarter at the 12:06 mark and tied the game on a Kwamie Lassiter 28-yard touchdown reception from Carter Stanley. The Jayhawks moved 75 yards in seven plays to forge the tie.

The score remained tied until the final seconds of the half as WVU kicker Evan Staley gave the visitors a 10-7 lead, going into the locker room, on his 37-yard field goal.

Where the first half produced 17 points between the two teams, the second half saw a combined 36 points as both offenses got in gear.

West Virginia took the opening possession of the third quarter 70 yards in 10 plays to up its advantage to 17-7. Tailback Martell Pettaway scampered in from 23 yards out for the score.

The breathing room got tighter again as Kansas answered the Mountaineer touchdown with a 71-yard drive and a 23-yard field goal by kicker Liam Jones.

Just like a classic boxing match, the two teams continued to trade big plays and scores.

The Jayhawks tried an unsuccessful onside kick following the Jones field goal, and West Virginia answered with a field goal of its own. Staley's second successful kick was good from 44 yards out, giving the Mountaineers a 20-10 advantage with 4:20 left in the third.

Kansas wasn't to be outdone and fought back with the big play. It took just 12 seconds and one play for Stanley to connect with Andrew Parchment for a 75-yard bomb to ignite the Kansas faithful and pull the Jayhawks to 20-17.

With the momentum clearly on the Jayhawks' side, the Mountaineers kept their composure on the road and added a third Staley field goal, this one from 22 yards out for a 23-17 lead with 12:35 left to play. The visitors had the ball for 6:28 in the drive.

The key play in the game came on Kansas' next possession as West Virginia's Keith Washington II intercepted Stanley, giving the Mountaineers the ball at the KU-49.

Pettaway's second touchdown run came 11 plays later, giving the Mountaineers a 29-17 lead with 4:59 left.

However, Kansas was far from done. The Jayhawks answered quickly with a 70-yard drive and a 3-yard touchdown catch by Parchment with 2:10 remaining.

After a second failed onside kick by Kansas, WVU's offense gained a first down before punting back to KU with 32 seconds left. The Mountaineer defense then held on for the win.

Kendall finished his day completing 25-of-37 passes for 202 yards. The running back trio of McKoy, Pettaway and Leddie Brown combined for 183 yards and three scores. With his 44 yards receiving, McKoy had a busy day and accounted for 117 all-purpose yards. Cornerback Josh Norwood paced the defense with 11 tackles.

Kansas got 275 yards passing and three touchdowns from Stanley, while running back Pooka Williams rushed for 76 yards. Parchment was the big-play guy for the Jayhawks with his 132 yards receiving and two scores. Mike Lee, Dru Prox and Kyron Johnson accounted for nine tackles each to top the KU defensive effort.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 192 yards rushing and 202 passing for 394 yards of offense. Kansas turned in a solid day with 142 yards on the ground and 275 through the air for 417 total yards.

One final key stat in the game was time of possession. West Virginia controlled the ball for 37:41 compared to 22:19 for Kansas. Controlling the ball over 15 minutes more enabled the Mountaineers to control the tempo and keep the Kansas offense off the field.

ATTENDANCE - 62,069

No. 11/12 Texas used four interceptions to its advantage in capturing a 42-31 decision over West Virginia in front of 62,069 fans on Homecoming at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The Longhorns scored 21 points off the four interceptions with another seven points coming after a missed Mountaineer field goal.

Despite a recipe that usually does not win a game against a top 25-ranked team, coach Neal Brown's young squad accounted nicely for itself, earning praise for the way it competed against the veteran Longhorns.

West Virginia took the game's opening drive 76 yards and opened the scoring, when quarterback Austin Kendall found receiver Sam James for a 44-yard touchdown.

Despite missing a field goal, the Longhorns got the ball back after securing their first interception. Veteran Texas quarterback Sam Ehlinger wasted no time taking advantage of the miscue and hit receiver Malcolm Epps two plays later with a 22-yard touchdown pass.

The Mountaineers broke the tie at the 12:50 mark of the second quarter as Kendall called his own number and scored on a 1-yard rush. The key play in the drive was a 44-yard completion to receiver T.J. Simmons that went to the Longhorn 5-yard line.

The Longhorns wasted little time in tying the game, marching 69 yards in 11 plays to knot the score at 14-14. Ehlinger found a wide-open John Burt for a 13-yard touchdown at the 7:59 mark.

An Evan Staley missed field goal set up the Longhorns for their next score. Texas used plays of 17 and 25 yards before Ehlinger rushed in from 13 yards out, giving a 21-14 advantage to the visitors at the half.

Texas had the first possession of the third quarter, and the Mountaineer defense came up with a big stop to give the offense a chance to tie. It would become the first of four straight stops by the WVU defense, but the Mountaineers could not take advantage except for a 29-yard field goal at the 1:59 mark, which cut the deficit to 21-17 heading to the fourth quarter. The field goal was set up by Keith Washington II's 34-yard interception return.

The third quarter produced only three points, but the fourth produced 35 combined points with the Mountaineers trying desperately to play catch up.

Texas used a B.J. Foster interception to start a drive at the WVU 18-yard line. Three plays later it was Devin Duvernay with a 13-yard touchdown run, giving UT a 28-17 lead.

Texas upped the advantage to 35-17 after a D'Shawn Jamison interception gave the Longhorns the ball at the WVU 33.

Texas used a trick play on a backward Ehlinger pass to offensive linemen Sam Cosmi for a 12-yard rush and a 35-17 Texas lead with 10:31 left to play.

The Mountaineers connected on a 39-yard pass to receiver Sean Ryan to set up a 19-yard scoring toss to Simmons, closing the gap to 35-24 with 3:56 left.

Texas recovered the onside kick and used it to full advantage, when Ehlinger turned in his second rushing touchdown in the game. The 23-yard run lifted the Longhorns back to a 42-24 margin.

With 2:58 remaining, West Virginia embarked on an 11-play, 81-yard drive highlighted by a 31-yard completion to receiver Bryce Wheaton and a 12-yard touchdown catch by Wheaton with 47 seconds left to play, putting the final score at 42-31 in favor of Texas.

Kendall passed for 367 yards and three touchdowns. Factoring in his rushing score, he accounted for four touchdowns in the game. Simmons turned in a career-high 135 yards receiving as did Ryan with his 70 yards on five catches. Safety Josh Norwood paced the defense with 10 tackles, while Hakeem Bailey and Josh Chandler had eight stops each. Darius Stills also added three tackles for loss and one sack.

Texas got 121 yards rushing from Roschon Johnson, while Ehlinger finished with 211 yards passing and two touchdowns to go along with his two rushing scores. Duvernay had 86 yards receiving, and Joseph Ossai led the Longhorns with eight tackles.

Final numbers showed a fairly even game with both quarterbacks accounting for four touchdowns. West Virginia had 96 yards rushing and 367 passing for 463 yards of offense. Texas turned in 216 yards on the ground and 211 through the air for 427 yards of offense.

UT had 26 first downs to WVU's 24 and the Longhorns had a stronghold on possession time 36:04-23:56.

The game was the ninth in the all-time series between the two schools. West Virginia now holds a 5-4 advantage.

ATTENDANCE - 51,836

A young and outmanned West Virginia team put forth a competitive battle, but in the end, ran out of gas in dropping a 38-14 decision to Iowa State at Milan Puskar Stadium.

Youth and inexperience were the key words coming out of the game, and injuries played a role, too. For the second straight week, West Virginia took an opponent deep into the second half before coming up short.

The game began shaky for WVU as starting quarterback Austin Kendall was injured on the team's first possession and was replaced by backup Jack Allison.

The Mountaineer defense came up big for the game's first score and tried to take some of the pressure off the offense, when freshman Tykee Smith intercepted quarterback Brock Purdy and returned it 19 yards for a touchdown.

The lead held until the 14:55 mark of the second quarter as running back Breece Hall plunged in from the 1-yard line to knot the score at 7-7.

Later in the quarter, it was Purdy taking matters into his own hands with a 2-yard run, giving the Cyclones a 14-7 advantage.

Allison played his best football in the final minutes of the second quarter, engineering a 14-play, 76-yard drive to tie the game at 14-14 going into the half. Key plays in the drive were 27- and 15-yard completions to receiver T.J. Simmons, before a 9-yard touchdown catch by Simmons ended the drive.

With the third quarter's opening possession, the Mountaineers had a chance to gain some breathing room, but the offense stalled. Purdy led the Cyclones on a 68-yard drive that gave them a 21-14 lead heading into the fourth quarter.

The Mountaineer offense still could not get on track, and Iowa State put the game away with three scores in the final quarter.

A Brayden Narveson 45-yard field goal came before a 16-yard touchdown catch by Joe Scates and a 1-yard run by Hall to break the game open late in the fourth.

Hall's touchdown ended a 62-yard drive, and his second rushing score in the game was set up by a Braxton Lewis 23-yard interception return of Allison to the WVU 26.

The Cyclones tallied 17 points in the final quarter, running 25 plays and controlling the ball for more than nine minutes.

Allison completed 18-of-24 passes for 140 yards, and Simmons caught five passes for 75 yards and one score. Josh Norwood led the defense with 10 tackles and one tackle for loss.

Iowa State got 229 yards passing from Purdy and 132 yards rushing from Hall. La'Michael Pettway was the favorite target as he caught eight passes for 81 yards. The ISU defense was led by Mike Rose with nine stops and one sack.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 41 yards rushing and 149 passing to total 190 yards of offense. Iowa State totaled 143 yards rushing and 229 passing for 372 total yards. Iowa State ran 20 more plays than West Virginia (73-53), and the Cyclones controlled the ball nearly 13 minutes more than the Mountaineers (36:11 to 23:48).

With the win, Iowa State has now captured the last two meetings against West Virginia, but the Mountaineers still hold a 5-3 advantage in the series.

NORMAN, OKLA. (OCT. 19, 2019)

After a competitive first half, West Virginia's struggles in the second half helped No. 5/5 Oklahoma to a 52-14 victory in front of 82,620 at Memorial Stadium.

Leading by 14 at the half, Oklahoma scored 21 unanswered third-quarter points and 24 overall to break open the game.

In the first quarter, the Sooners used a 20-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jalen Hurts to Jeremiah Hall and a 6-yard scoring toss from Hurts to Charleston Rambo for a 14-0 lead.

West Virginia answered at the 11:57 mark of the second quarter, when receiver T.J. Simmons hauled in an Austin Kendall pass for a 37-yard touchdown, capping a 10-play, 75-yard drive in 5:08. The key play in the drive was a fake punt by Josh Growden that resulted in a 7-yard completion to Dante Bonamico and a first down on the final play of the opening quarter.

As West Virginia struggled to get any type of a running game going, Oklahoma put 14 more points on the board to open a 28-7 advantage.

Running back Kennedy Brooks scored on a 9-yard run, and Hurts called his own number with a 2-yard run with 6:31 left in the half.

A positive note for the Mountaineers was a 51-yard drive just before halftime, as Kendall hit Simmons for a second time. This scoring completion went for 7 yards and cut the lead to 28-14.

However, the third quarter was a disaster for the Mountaineers. Oklahoma scored on the opening possession and never looked back.

Hurts scored his second touchdown of the game on a 22-yard run to start the second-half scoring, before connecting with receiver Lee Morris for a 46-yard touchdown reception.

With OU leading 42-14, Austin Stogner recovered a blocked Growden punt in the end zone, giving the Sooners a 49-14 advantage heading into the fourth quarter. It marked the first blocked punt recovered for a touchdown against West Virginia since 2003.

Oklahoma closed the scoring with 14:17 left, when kicker Gabe Brkic converted on a 29-yard field goal attempt, putting the final score at 52-14.

Kendall started his career at Oklahoma before transferring to West Virginia. His homecoming saw him complete 15 passes for 182 yards and two touchdowns. Simmons caught both of those scoring tosses en route to 75 yards receiving. Josh Norwood led the Mountaineer defense with 11 tackles and one TFL.

Hurts led Oklahoma with a great offensive day. He completed 16-of-17 passes for 316 yards and three scores. He also led the Sooners in rushing with 75 yards. Rambo and CeeDee Lamb each had 71 yards receiving, while linebacker Kenneth Murray paced the Sooner defense with nine tackles and two TFLs.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 51 yards rushing and 191 passing for 242 yards of offense. Oklahoma came into the game with the nation's No. 3 offense and finished with 197 yards on the ground and 363 passing for 560 yards.

Oklahoma remains the only Big 12 team that West Virginia has never defeated in league play as the Sooners now lead the overall series between the two teams by a 10-2 mark, including an 8-0 record in Big 12 play.

WACO, TEXAS (OCT. 31, 2019)

No. 12/11 Baylor fought off a stiff challenge to defeat West Virginia 17-14 in front of a Thursday night, ESPN audience at McLane Stadium.

West Virginia used a strong defensive effort to stay in the game and had its chances down the stretch, but could not take advantage of the opportunity to pull off the upset.

Baylor scored the game's first points as the first quarter came to an end. Quarterback Charlie Brewer connected with receiver R.J. Sneed for a 13-yard touchdown with just six seconds left. The scoring play capped an eight play, 86-yard drive by the Bears in 4:13.

Sneed's touchdown turned out to be the only points scored in the first half as the West Virginia defense turned in its best performance of the year against the potent Baylor attack.

While the defense was keeping the Mountaineers in the game, West Virginia's offensive struggles continued in the first half. The Mountaineers managed only 64 total yards in the first two quarters behind 16 rushing and 48 yards passing.

After forcing a fumble on Baylor's first possession of the third quarter, West Virginia's first real threat at a score ended at the Baylor 10-yard line, when a bad snap was recovered by the Bears.

The Mountaineers bounced back on the next possession and tied the game, when quarterback Austin Kendall connected with receiver George Campbell for an 83-yard touchdown pass. The play was West Virginia's longest from scrimmage on the year.

It didn't take the Bears long to regain the advantage, as they marched 75 yards in seven plays on their next possession to take a 14-7 lead with 4:34 left in the quarter. Brewer fired his second touchdown pass in the game, this one to Denzel Mims for 21 yards.

As much as the first half lacked offensive punch, the third quarter saw the two teams combine for 21 points. The Mountaineers answered the Baylor score with some fireworks of their own. Winston Wright Jr. took the ensuing Baylor kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 14-14 with 4:22 left in the third. It was the first kickoff return for a score by the Mountaineers since 2014.

Two drives later, Baylor regained the lead for good when kicker John Mayers connected on a 36-yard field goal. The 13-play drive ate up 6:36 off the clock.

The Mountaineers had a chance to tie the game, when Campbell recovered a fumbled punt by BU. Kicker Casey Legg's first field goal attempt (43 yards) was nullified by a delay of game penalty, before his second attempt from 5 yards farther was blocked.

Campbell finished with 83 yards receiving, while the strong WVU defensive effort was paced by Noah Guzman with 12 tackles, followed by Darius Stills with 10 tackles and three sacks.

Baylor was led by Brewer with 277 yards passing as Mims and Tyquan Thornton combined for 185 yards receiving. Terrel Bernard led the BU defense with 10 tackles and one sack.

WVU finished with 205 total yards on 65 plays. Baylor turned in 453 yards on 82 plays. BU dominated the time of possession 36:26 to 23:34.

With the victory, Baylor ended a three-game losing streak to the Mountaineers.

MORGANTOWN, W.VA. (NOV. 9, 2019)

Texas Tech broke a five-game losing streak to West Virginia with a 38-17 victory at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The Red Raiders used a fast start to put the Mountaineers in catch-up mode from the beginning. Texas Tech scored touchdowns on its first five possessions to start the game and never let the Mountaineers back in the contest.

For West Virginia, the offensive woes of the 2019 season continued in the form of a non-existent running game, which left the Mountaineers in passing situations for most of the game.

Texas Tech took the opening possession 72 yards in 11 plays to start the scoring. Ta'Zhawn Henry's 2-yard run gave the Red Raiders a lead they would never relinquish.

West Virginia drove 63 yards on its opening drive and came away with a 30-yard field goal by Casey Legg to cut the deficit to 7-3. However, the Red Raiders scored touchdowns on their next three drives to take command.

One play after the Legg field goal, Texas Tech quarterback Jett Duffey threw an 81-yard touchdown pass to receiver Dalton Rigdon for a 14-3 lead.

Before the first quarter ended, Henry scored his second rushing touchdown for a 21-3 TTU advantage. The score was set up by a Douglas Coleman interception of WVU quarterback Austin Kendall.

Second quarter action saw Texas Tech drive 87 yards for a score on SaRodorick Thompson's 1-yard run. Thompson would add another touchdown later in the quarter after a Mountaineer trick play dazzled the home faithful.

West Virginia ended a six-play, 65-yard drive with a Kennedy McKoy touchdown reception from receiver Isaiah Esdale, putting the halftime score at 35-10 Tech.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, and the Mountaineers actually won the second half by outscoring Texas Tech 7-3.

The Red Raiders were in conservative, run-the-clock mode for the last two quarters and added a 24-yard Trey Wolff field goal with 10:20 left to play.

West Virginia backup quarterback Jarret Doege saw his first action of the season in the fourth quarter and led the Mountaineers on a seven-play, 61-yard scoring drive that ended with a 9-yard touchdown pass to running back Tony Mathis to close the game's scoring.

Kendall finished with 355 yards passing, while receiver Sam James hauled in 223 yards receiving. Fellow receiver George Campbell added 95 yards in the effort. WVU was led defensively by Sean Mahone with a career-best 13 tackles.

Duffey paced the Red Raider offense with 354 yards passing as 106 of those yards went to receiver Rigdon. Henry and Thompson added two touchdowns each in the victory, while Jordyn Brooks collected 11 tackles.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 51 yards rushing and 498 passing to total 549 yards of offense. Texas Tech turned in 127 yards on the ground and 354 through the air for 481 total yards. While WVU won the stats battle, it could not overcome TTU scoring on five straight possessions

The two teams came into the game with identical 3-5 records, and by snapping the five-game losing streak to the Mountaineers, the Red Raiders now trail the all-time series with West Virginia by a 6-3 count, including a 5-3 mark all-time in Big 12 play.

West Virginia broke a five-game losing streak on the season with a much needed 24-20 victory at Kansas State.

West Virginia got a strong performance from its defense and a spark offensively from backup quarterback Jarret Doege, who was making his first West Virginia start.

However, things started shaky for the Mountaineer defense. Kansas State scored on its first play from scrimmage, and it looked like it was going to be a long afternoon for the visitors.

Wildcat quarterback Skylar Thompson connected with receiver Dalton Schoen for a 68-yard touchdown strike, giving KSU a 7-0 lead, much to the delight of the home crowd.

The key for West Virginia was to somehow answer the quick strike, and the Mountaineers did that with a six-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a Doege 19-yard touchdown pass to receiver George Campbell. It was Doege's 32-yard completion to Campbell earlier in the drive that provided the key play as the Mountaineers tied the game at 7-7.

Kansas State regained the lead on its next possession with a 22-yard Blake Lynch field goal. The scoring drive consumed 6:18 of the first quarter.

As the quarter ended, Doege went to the air again and found Campbell for a 15-yard scoring reception, putting the score at 14-10 in favor of the visitors.

Second-quarter action saw Kansas State add a 33-yard Lynch field goal, which was key as the Wildcats got the ball first to start the second half.

Kansas State made the most of the third quarter's first drive, marching 70 yards in 13 plays, grabbing a 20-14 lead on James Gilbert's 3-yard run. KSU took 7:04 off the clock with the drive.

The Wildcats scored the only points in the second and third quarters, but the Mountaineers got back on the board at the 14:07 mark of the fourth, when kicker Casey Legg connected on a 51-yard field goal.

Trailing 20-17 with 11:27 left, WVU receiver Bryce Wheaton got behind the KSU defense and hauled in a 50-yard touchdown pass from Doege, giving the Mountaineers a 24-20 advantage.

The WVU defense did the rest by keeping the Wildcats out of the end zone on the next three possessions. Hakeem Bailey's interception with 28 seconds left sealed the game.

Doege impressed in his first start, completing 20-of-30 passes for 234 yards and three touchdowns. Campbell finished with 92 yards receiving and two scores. Running backs Leddie Brown and Kennedy McKoy combined for 103 yards rushing, and Sean Mahone led the defense with nine tackles, two tackles for loss and one sack.

For Kansas State, Thompson finished with 299 yards passing and one touchdown. Gilbert paced the KSU running game with 60 yards, while Schoen led the Wildcat receivers with 84 yards. Defensively, KSU was led by Wayne Jones with seven stops and one tackle for loss.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 85 yards rushing and 234 passing for 319 yards of offense. Kansas State totaled 122 yards on the ground and 299 through the air for 421 yards of offense.

The win gave the Mountaineers a four-game winning streak over K-State and evened the series at 4-4 in Big 12 Conference play. KSU won the first four conference meetings, before WVU evened things with the current four-game streak.

No. 22/23 Oklahoma State scored 10 fourth-quarter points to come back and survive an upset bid at the hands of West Virginia by a 20-13 count.

Trailing by three in the fourth quarter, the Cowboys put together two scoring drives and a big defensive stop to hold off the Mountaineers and eliminate them from bowl eligibility.

The Cowboys scored on their first drive of the game going 74 yards in 11 plays. Receiver Jelani Woods caught a 1-yard pass from backup quarterback Dru Brown, who was playing for the injured Spencer Sanders.

West Virginia did not answer the score until the 10:33 mark of the second quarter on Evan Staley's 22-yard field goal. The Mountaineers had two chances to score from the 1-yard line, but failed to punch it in and had to settle for the field goal.

Later in the quarter, West Virginia quarterback Jarret Doege went to the air for a 34-yard touchdown strike to receiver George Campbell, giving WVU a 10-7 advantage. The catch was Campbell's team-leading seventh touchdown of the season.

The Mountaineers took the 10-7 lead into the locker room at the half, thanks to a strong defensive effort. The unit held the Cowboys to 119 total yards, and their star running back, Chuba Hubbard to just 39 yards rushing.

The Cowboys tied the game on the opening possession of the third quarter. Kicker Matt Ammendola converted on a 45-yard field goal after the OSU offense drove 45 yards.

West Virginia regained the lead with just 54 ticks remaining in the third, when Staley hit from 29 yards away. The WVU offense put Staley in field goal range, driving 73 yards in 11 plays.

The Mountaineers led at the half, at the end of the third and were doing the things needed to pull off the upset. However, it was not meant to be as Oklahoma State scored 10 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to grab the road win.

In the end, the problems the Mountaineer offense have faced all season surfaced again: failure to run the ball, dropped passes and the inability to score touchdowns in the red zone turned out to be the difference.

OSU's 10 fourth-quarter points came from a 2-yard touchdown pass to Dillon Stoner and a 22-yard field goal from Ammendola. The Mountaineers did put a drive together late in the game in an effort to tie, but the Cowboys held at their own 19-yard line.

Doege finished with 307 yards on 28 completions, while Campbell turned in his third straight game of 90-plus receiving yards with five catches for 92 yards. Linebacker Josh Chandler and defensive back Kerry Martin Jr. each turned in nine tackles.

For OSU, Hubbard finished with 106 yards rushing and 88 receiving, while Brown passed for 196 yards and two scores. Amen Ogbongbemiga led the Cowboy defense with 11 stops.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 26 yards rushing and 307 passing for 333 yards of offense. Oklahoma State rushed for 89 yards and passed for 196 to total 285 yards.

With the win, the Cowboys extended their win streak over West Virginia to five games. The Mountaineers finished the home portion of the 2019 season with a 2-4 record at Milan Puskar Stadium.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS (NOV. 29, 2019)

West Virginia closed the 2019 season with a 20-17 road win at TCU.

While Black Friday usually means shopping to some, this holiday weekend game meant a potential bowl bid on the line for TCU or a chance to close the season on a high note for West Virginia.

The defensive battle did not disappoint and came down to the final possession, before West Virginia secured its third road win of the season.

The game started on the positive side for the Mountaineers, as a Tykee Smith interception on TCU's first possession set up the game's opening score.

Smith returned the errant Horned Frog pass 39 yards to the TCU 14-yard line. Four plays later, WVU quarterback Jarret Doege connected with running back Leddie Brown for a 3-yard touchdown reception and a 7-0 Mountaineer lead.

The Horned Frogs tied the game at the 5:16 mark of the first, when Sewo Olonilua rushed in from 2 ards out. The score was set up by a 64-yard run by Taye Barber on the drive's first play.

TCU took its first lead at the 9:49 mark of the second quarter on a Jonathan Song 30-yard field goal. The Horned Frogs marched 54 yards in 11 plays for the score.

West Virginia answered with a field goal of its own on the next possession. The Mountaineers drove 52 yards in 10 plays, tying the game on a 40-yard field goal from Evan Staley.

TCU's next two possessions and one for WVU did not produce any points, and the two teams took the 10-10 score into the locker room at the half.

The Horned Frogs jumped back out on top with 12:12 left in the third, when Jalen Reagor returned a Josh Growden punt 70 yards for a 17-10 lead. WVU's special teams had been solid all year, but Reagor made the Mountaineers pay for the breakdown.

Later in the third quarter, West Virginia used a Sean Mahone interception and a 36-yard run by tailback Kennedy McKoy to register a 24-yard Staley field goal. Staley's second successful kick of the game put the score at 17-13 in favor of TCU heading to the fourth.

The two defenses held until the Mountaineers broke through with 2:10 left to play. A seven-play, 61-yard drive ended with a 35-yard touchdown strike from Doege to receiver Isaiah Esdale, putting WVU in front 20-17.

Not only did the Mountaineer defense have to hold TCU once, but twice in the final two minutes to secure the victory. One drive held the Horned Frogs to 13 yards. After using all three timeouts, TCU got the ball back with 46 seconds left only to be denied once again.

WVU's top performers were McKoy with 51 yards rushing and Doege with two touchdown passes. Shea Campbell led the defense with eight tackles, two TFLs and one sack. TCU got 144 yards passing from QB Max Duggan and 12 tackles from linebacker Garret Wallow.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 86 yards rushing and 158 passing for 244 yards of offense. TCU finished with 153 yards on the ground and 144 through the air for 297 total yards.

With the outcome, both teams finished with 5-7 records on the year. WVU finished 3-3 on the road in 2019 and 3-2 in Big 12 road games.

WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

E. GORDON GEE, J.D., ED.D

Dr. E. Gordon Gee is one of America's most prominent higher education leaders, having helmed universities for more than three decades. In 2009, Time magazine named him one of the top 10 university presidents in the United States. Recently, the website Great Value Colleges named him the nation's top university president.

In 2014, Gee returned to West Virginia University, where his career as a university president began. His leadership goals include putting students first, advancing the University's research agenda, partnering with West Virginia communities and making sure that 1.8 million West Virginians know in their hearts and minds that WVU is their university.

Born in Vernal, Utah, Gee graduated from the University of Utah with an honors degree in history and earned his J.D. and Ed.D. degrees from Columbia University. He clerked under Chief Justice David T. Lewis of the U.S. 10th Circuit Court of Appeals before being named a judicial fellow and staff assistant to the U.S. Supreme Court. In this role, he worked for Chief Justice Warren Burger on administrative and legal problems of the Court and federal judiciary. Gee returned to Utah as an associate professor and associate dean in the J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University and was granted full professorship in 1978.

One year later, he became dean of the West Virginia University College of Law, and, in 1980, was named West Virginia University president. He served in that role until 1985.
He went on to lead the University of Colorado (1985-90), Brown University (1998-2000) and Vanderbilt University (2001-07). He served as president of The Ohio State University from 1990-97 and again from 2007-13.

Gee has been a member of several education-governance organizations and committees including the Big 12 Conference Council of Presidents, the Business-Higher Education Forum and the American Association of Universities. He was chair of the American Council on Education's Commission on Higher Education Attainment and co-chair of the Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities' Energy Advisory Committee. In 2009, Gee was invited to join the International Advisory Board of King Adbulaziz University in Saudi Arabia, and currently serves on the Board of the Royal University for Women in Bahrain.

Active in many national professional and service organizations during his tenures, he has served on the board for the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum, Inc. In 2011, Gee was appointed to serve as secretary on the Board of Directors of Ohio's economic development program, JobsOhio. In 2011-2012, he was asked by Governor Kasich to chair both the Ohio Higher Education Capital Funding Collaborative and the Ohio Higher Education Funding Commission. In March 2015, he was elected to the board of directors of the American Council on Education, the nation's largest higher education organization. He served as chair of the Big 12 Board of Directors Executive Committee for the 2017-18 year and currently serves on the College Football Playoff Board of Managers. He has also chaired the council of presidents for the Southern University Research Association.

Mentoring and inspiring youth is one of Gee's highest priorities. He serves on the National Executive Board for Boy Scouts of America and on the Board of Trustees for the National 4-H Council. Through his leadership, West Virginia University has created a Youth Development Initiative office to expand its partnering relationships with Scouting, 4-H and similar organizations.

Gee has received many honorary degrees, awards, fellowships and recognitions. He is a fellow of the prestigious American Association for the Advancement of Science, the world's largest science organization. In 1994, Gee received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the University of Utah, as well as from Teachers College of Columbia University. In 2013, he received the ACE Council of Fellows/Fidelity Investments Mentor Award and received the Outstanding Academic Leader of the Year Award on behalf of Historically Black Colleges and Universities. Boy Scouts of America gave him the Silver Buffalo Award, Scouting's top honor for adult volunteers.

Gee is the co-author of over a dozen books, including his two most recent, "Leading Colleges and Universities" and "Land-Grant Universities for the Future." Johns Hopkins University Press will soon publish "What's Public about Public Higher Ed? Halting Higher Education's Decline in the Court of Public Opinion," co-authored by Stephen Gavazzi.

In the summer of 2016, Gee announced his engagement to Laurie Erickson, leader of the Erickson Foundation. Gee's daughter, Rebekah, is a physician and public health policy expert who served as secretary of the Louisiana Department of Health from 2016 to 2020. She is now chief executive officer of Louisiana State University Healthcare Services. Dr. Rebekah Gee is married to David Patrón and they have five children.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS/ASSOCIATE VP

SHANE LYONS

In his sixth year as the director of athletics at West Virginia University, Shane Lyons' vison for the athletics program is crystal clear. It's a vision that focuses on the betterment of more than 500 student-athletes and the day-to-day needs that will help them succeed in the classroom and in competition, and it is working.

His open lines of communications have made him a popular role model for WVU athletes and coaches. His honest, fair and caring approach has led to success on and off the field. Whether it's regularly scheduled meetings with the student-athletes or his open-door office policy, Lyons has his finger on the pulse of his student-athletes, coaches and staff.

His success has brought national exposure to West Virginia as Lyons' presence is wanted on many national and prestigious committees. He chairs the all-important Football Oversight Committee and is also a member of the NCAA Council. Additionally, Lyons serves on the NCAA Working Group on Transfers, the Football Competition Committee and the NCAA Wrestling Academics Enhancement Working Group.

His work with WVU President E. Gordon Gee's senior leadership team and the Big 12 Conference has brought additional respect and positive exposure to his department and the University. He served on the Big 12 Administration Committee, Finance and Budget Committee and the Game Management and Officiating Subcommittee, while chairing the Big 12 athletic directors committee in 2018.

In the office, he devotes endless energy to his Climbing Higher facilities master plan that will keep West Virginia a strong Power 5 institution and position his department for growth and continued success. His Climbing Higher facilities master plan isn't about keeping up with the Joneses, it's about taking what his department has, improving it and making it complete for the student-athlete. It's an aggressive, $100 million fundraising campaign centered on one of his core values - enhancing the student-athlete experience. The campaign is already making a difference with a complete renovation of football's Milan Puskar Center and the future emergence of an Olympic Sports Performance Center.

And, coming in 2021, Lyons will lead the celebration of the 50th birthday of the WVU Coliseum and oversee the installation of 14,000 new seats, a new videoboard, lighting and sound system for the venerable structure. From training, nutrition, medical and competitiveness, Lyons' vision is for sustained future success, building winning programs and growing WVU's strong reputation across the country. He is about results, and he has already left a great deal of accomplishments in his rear-view mirror.

In 2019, Lyons commissioned and announced an economic impact study that showed Mountaineer Athletics produced more than $300 million to the state's economy and more than $78 million to the local economy. And with the local economy in mind, Lyons's proudly saw the formal opening of a new $45 million aquatic and track facility that will not only benefit WVU, but also local schools and the entire community. The Mountaineers proudly hosted the 2020 Big 12 swimming and diving championships in that beautiful facility.

Additionally, in the last two years, Lyons' department has hosted the NCAA rifle national championships, the Big 12 golf championship and an NCAA baseball regional. In 2019 and again in 2020, WVU recorded its highest APR score ever and finished above the national average both years. In 2020, Lyons oversaw a department that produced 122 Academic All-Conference performers, 14 academic award winners and six academic team awards.

When he stresses academics, he means it and 2020 was the second year in a row that his department finished with its best overall team GPA in history at 3.36. That accomplishment featured every team with a GPA above 3.0 for the 2020 spring semester.

From 2015-18, he spearheaded and finished more than $100 million in fan enhancements to Milan Puskar Stadium and the WVU Coliseum, completed a second phase of Coliseum renovations, bringing the arena up to current ADA seating code, and for the first-time ever, introduced a second video board to Milan Puskar Stadium to provide information and improve fan entertainment.

He implemented a Clinical and Sport Psychology unit with a full-time director and professional interns, added specialized learning assistants to the Student-Athlete Development unit and entered into a partnership with WVU Medicine's Neuroscience Department to assist in the training and recovery of student-athletes, all emphasizing his overall commitment to the well-being and performance of Mountaineer student-athletes.

Ask him and he'll tell you it's not his department, but West Virginia's department. He cares, and the proof is in what he has accomplished for Mountaineer athletics.

Lyons came to West Virginia after spending three years as the deputy director of athletics and chief operating officer at Alabama where he worked closely on day-to-day strategic leadership and direction of the Crimson Tide Athletic program.

Prior to joining the Alabama staff in November 2011, Lyons spent 10 years as an associate commissioner at the Atlantic Coast Conference. At the ACC, Lyons focused on conference-wide compliance and academic initiatives, providing direct assistance to the conference's presidents, chancellors and athletics directors in dealing with NCAA regulatory matters.

In addition, he served as the ACC's human resource manager and was responsible for the administration, negotiation and mediation of the employee benefits program and managing the conference's organizational policies and procedures. He was part of the senior administrative team for ACC events, including the football championship game, the men's basketball tournament and men's and women's NCAA basketball events.

Prior to working at the ACC, Lyons served as associate athletics director for compliance at Big 12 member Texas Tech from 1998 to 2001. During that time, Lyons assumed responsibility for the leadership, administration and implementation of a comprehensive NCAA compliance program with emphasis toward rules education and extensive monitoring systems. He also served as oversight administrator for several of the Red Raiders' athletic teams and had financial and operational supervision of the strength and conditioning, nutritional and sports medicine units.

Before joining Texas Tech, Lyons worked at the NCAA for almost 10 years as a senior membership services representative, where he was responsible for the oversight and coordination of rules and interpretations for the 25 membership service representatives and was the staff liaison to various NCAA standing committees.

Lyons began his career in college athletics in July 1988 as assistant commissioner of the Big South Conference. With the Big South, he was in charge of conference-wide compliance and championships.

A native of Parkersburg, West Virginia, and a graduate of Parkersburg High, Lyons was a standout basketball player for the Big Reds. He earned bachelor's and master's degrees in sport management from WVU in 1987 and 1988, respectively.

Lyons, the University's 12th athletic director, and his wife, Emily, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison, have two children: Cameron and Brooke. Cameron is a member of the football team at Akron and Brooke attends Morgantown High School.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Following are some guidelines for covering the Mountaineers in 2020. Due to COVID-19, schedules are subject to change and all working space on the sideline and in the press box will be extremely limited and will be issued completely on a priority basis in accordance with all health and safety regulations.

CREDENTIALS: All requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials to cover West Virginia's 2020 home football games must be applied for online at http://www.sportssystems.com/westvirginia at least two weeks prior to the game. Requests submitted the week of the game only will be honored if space permits.

Due to the demand for working credentials, media regularly assigned to cover WVU and the visiting school will receive priority. All photographers must work outside the coaching box as prescribed by the NCAA; they are not permitted in the bench area extended. Photographers must sign in for field access in the press box prior to each game.

No children (under the age of 16) are allowed on the sidelines for any reason; any children on the sidelines will be removed, along with their guardians.

Any abuse of a working credential to West Virginia football games can result in the media agency losing credential privileges for the remainder of 2020 and possibly the entire 2021 home season.

AFTER THE GAME: Coach Neal Brown will conduct a postgame news conference accessible to the media via video conferencing. The link will be issued to accredited media the week of the game. Brown's news conference also can be heard over the press box PA. Select WVU players also will be available via video. No media will be granted access to the Milan Puskar Center due to health and safety regulations.

DURING THE WEEK: Coach Neal Brown will meet with the media each Tuesday afternoon at noon, via video conferencing. The link to the conference will be distributed each week. Brown will be available on the Big 12 weekly conference call each Monday at 11:40 a.m. ET Select Mountaineer players will be available for interviews via video conference each Tuesday from 12:30 – 2 p.m. Any special arrangements for player interviews should be made through director of football communications Mike Montoro at least a day in advance. Players will not be asked to miss class or study hall for interviews and at no time will a player's phone number be given to the media. No player interviews will be conducted during practice sessions. The practice and interview schedule for preseason camp and game weeks will be announced in August.

DIRECTIONS TO PRESS PARKING AREA (RED AND BROWN LOTS)

From I-79: Take the Star City/WVU exit. Cross the Star City Bridge and proceed up Monongahela Boulevard toward the Coliseum. At the Coliseum traffic light, turn left onto Patteson Drive. At the third traffic light, turn right onto University Avenue. Travel approximately ½ mile and make a left towards the WVU Law School. Proceed up the hill where attendants will direct you to the Red and Brown parking areas. A shuttle van runs continuously from the media lots to the press box.

From I-68: Take the Pierpont Road exit and follow signs to the stadium. At the second traffic light off the interstate, turn left and travel up Easton Hill. Count two more traffic lights and turn right on Route 705 and stay on this highway as it becomes Chestnut Ridge Road. Turn left at the sixth traffic light onto Van Voorhis Road, and make another left at the second traffic light onto University Ave. Travel approximately ½ mile and make a left towards the WVU Law School. Proceed up the hill where attendants will direct you to the Red and Brown parking areas. A shuttle van runs continuously from the media lots to the press box.
